JUST THINKING

Number 9

Don Fredrick reported at the beginning of March: "Pennsylvania, Judge Keith B. Quigley dismissed an Obama ballot challenge filed by Commander Charles Kerchner (retired) and Dale Laudenslager, claiming he has no jurisdictional grounds to rule on the merits of the case. According to BirtherReport.com, 'The Candidate's Affidavit in PA is routinely signed under oath stating the candidate is eligible for the office they seek. Candidate ...Obama did not sign under oath the Candidate's Affidavit which states that he was eligible for the office he is seeking. He did not even sign it at all. The top half was filled out by a lawyer on his behalf and the bottom part with the signatures was left blank. It was subsequently learned that a Pennsylvania statute provides an exception for presidential candidates that they do not have to complete the Candidate Affidavit, and Obama availed himself of that exception. Hmmh, I wonder why. Other presidential candidates such as Mitt Romney, Ron Paul, and Rick Santorum signed the sworn affidavit stating they were eligible for the office they seek. But since Obama did not sign his, and under PA law he did not have to, it gave Obama an escape hatch in that Obama was not claiming to PA that he was eligible for the office he seeks and thus the court said it did not have any jurisdiction over his eligibility and dismissed the case.'

JT: I wanted to say that Judge Keith B. Quigley is one dumb Pennsylvania judge! But he isn't. He is a scapegoater judge. He caved in with this decision. There are reasons for this true statement. The decision hinges on this aspect: "It was subsequently learned that a Pennsylvania statute provides an exception for presidential candidates that they do not have to complete the Candidate Affidavit" Judge Quigley – the name comes from the Irish O'Quigley, meaning untidy person – took the coward's way and made an untidy decision. He could have stated that the provision in the Pennsylvania law applied only to those presidents seeking reelection who had been properly vetted in the first election. He did not do so. As such,

Judge Quigley did not honor his oath of office to uphold the Constitution for the United States of America. The Constitution says that as a result of logic and the laws of nature, the United States of America does not have a president. I urge the reader to pay attention to the unrefutable proof at: <http://www.colony14.net/sitebuildercontent/sitebuilderfiles/acountrywithoutapresident.pdf>. This is true! The United States of America has a usurper dictator! and a Pennsylvania judge who doesn't care!

Durbin (D-IL) responds that Obama “is a natural born citizen, born in Hawaii, as evidenced by both his ‘short-form’ and ‘long-form’ birth certificates.’ Claims to the contrary have proven to be unfounded.”

JT: Dick Durbin is pricked with Obama intelligence. Dick Durbin knows who Obama is and knows who he is. Dick Durbin is Prickey Dickey, the Emperor of Intelligence!

Senator Jeff Sessions (R-AL) asks Panetta, “We spend our time worrying about the U.N., the Arab League, NATO and too little time, in my opinion, worrying about the elected representatives of the United States. As you go forward, will you consult with the United States Congress?” Panetta responds, “You know, our goal would be to seek international permission. And we would [then] come to the Congress and inform you and determine how best to approach this, whether or not we would want to get permission from the Congress.” Sessions states, “I’m really baffled by the idea that somehow an international assembly provides a legal basis for the United States military to be deployed in combat. I don’t believe it’s close to being correct. They provide no legal authority. The only legal authority that’s required to deploy the United States military is of the Congress and the president and the law and the Constitution.”

JT: Not under the provisional first caliphate of the world. America can be flushed down the drain. Obama and all of his minions, the military generals as well, are following their leader:

Jews attempt to celebrate the Sabbath on 9 March and the holiday of Purim, a Jewish holiday commemorating the deliverance of the Jewish people in the ancient Persian Empire from genocide in the aftermath of a plot by Haman. Palestinian terrorists fire almost 100 missiles and rockets into Israel.

JT: Evidently Obama made no comment, but I think I heard him say Allaah u akbar! Islam is o so perfect and peaceful. Allah is such a thoughtful Moon-god. There is nothing more beautiful than Islam. It is even more beautiful than Michelle. It is most wonderful to have come into this world as a Muslim.

WND.com reports, “A lawsuit alleging that Planned Parenthood submitted more than 87,000 fraudulent claims—and pointing out that there could be an $11,000-plus penalty for each case—has been unveiled in a Texas dispute by attorneys representing former Planned Parenthood clinic director Abby Johnson. The case alleges the nation’s abortion industry giant submitted 'repeated false, fraudulent, and ineligible claims for Medicaid reimbursements' through the Texas Women's Health Program. ...Johnson is the former director of the Planned Parenthood business in Bryan/College Station. She is bringing the claims against Planned Parenthood under the Federal False Claims Act and the Texas Medicaid Fraud Prevention Act."

JT: Planned Parenthood is planned murder! Subsidized by the United States non-government!

Andrew Breitbart alleged there is a plot between MSNBC and Media Matters for America—perhaps even in coordination with the White House—to paint detractors of ...Obama as bigots.

JT: What is MSNBC? Mighty Satan Nationally Bullshits Conservatives.

General Martin Dempsey is the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. When he and the Secretary of Defense Leon Panetta testified before the Senate Armed Services Committee, General Dempsey said, "that the Obama administration had no responsibility to even consult Congress in matters of waging war. Panetta said, however, as a courtesy they would be informed. He further stated that the Obama administration would now seek 'international permission' (which he said included NATO and the United Nations) for any of Obama's war adventures overseas. General Dempsey ...said that his 'authority' for making this determination was to look toward 'an international legal basis.'"

JT: Who else is General Dempsey? General Dempsey is like Obama. He is a traitor, a law-breaker, and an insult to the United States of America. So is Leon Panetta.

The state of Texas provides free photo IDs to residents who do not already have one, such as individuals who do not have a drivers license. Nevertheless, Obama and Holder claim that obtaining an ID is too great a burden to place on voters.

JT: For Obama and Holder voting is too great a burden to place on voters.

The Washington Post: In the March 7–10 national poll of adults Obama scores a 46 percent approval rating on his handling of Afghanistan; 38 percent on energy policy; 38 percent on the economy; 36 percent on Iraq; 32 percent on the budget deficit; and 26 percent on gasoline prices. On each of those issues Obama's disapproval rating is higher than his approval rating. Additionally, when the disapproval rating is examined, a far greater percentage of those polled express strong disapproval rather than general disapproval. Obama's overall approval rating in the poll is 46 percent, with 50 percent expressing disapproval. But 39 percent indicate strong disapproval, while only 28 percent indicate strong approval.

JT: I can't help but think that those surveyed cannot read correctly. Perhaps they can't even think correctly. The results should have been: "4 percent approval rating on his handling of Afghanistan; 3 percent on energy policy; 0 percent on the economy; 3 percent on Iraq; 0 percent on the budget deficit; and 0 percent on gasoline prices. (I'm being kind with the above-zero percentages!) On each of those issues Obama's disapproval rating is higher than his approval rating. Additionally, when the disapproval rating is examined, a far greater percentage of those polled express strong disapproval rather than general disapproval. Obama's overall approval rating in the poll is 0 percent, with 100 percent expressing disapproval. Evidently, only Democrats, leftists, progressives, occupiers, union thugs, and obots who don't understand the real world as well as percentage points are asked the questions.

On March 12 DailyCaller.com reports that the number of Republican Congressmen calling for the resignation of Attorney General Eric Holder has reached 120.

JT: When asked if they support Holder, some Congresspersons answer no comment! Well ... that is backbone! All of the Congress and the Senate (What wishful thinking!) should be calling for his resignation and an investigation into everything Obama and Holder have ruined at the Justice Department. At least the 242 Republicans should be calling for his resignation and the investigations. I think they have concrete in their posteriors and sand in their brains!

From InfoWars.com, Congressman Walter Jones (R-NC) "...has introduced H. Concurrent Resolution 107, which calls on the House, the Senate Concurring, to prevent Obama from starting another war without authorization from Congress. The resolution was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary on March 7. Obama's unconstitutional decision to involve the U.S. in the illegal attack on Libya without the consent of Congress motivated at least some members of the House of Representatives to demand an explanation. On June 3 of last year, the House passed a resolution demanding that the president provide an explanation to the American people, a request that was ignored by Obama and his administration. Rep. Jones' resolution states that any use of military force by Obama without explicit consent and authorization of Congress constitutes an impeachable high crime and misdemeanor under article II, section 4 of the Constitution." The resolution is a warning to Obama: "Do not engage in military action in Syria without first coming to Congress for its approval. You acted illegally with your Libyan action and if you do it again there will be consequences. "

JT: The resolution will not advance. Practically no one in Congress cares. Why should they raise these questions, which may make their guaranteed positions not so guaranteed. The greater majority of Americans don't understand the situations. They don't understand the Constitution for the United States of America. They don't care. As such, they are passive traitors! The resolution should have a provision in it to make the warning with consequences retroactive to the Libya kinetic action. It is simply amazing that Congress is doing everything it can to support an avid anti-American, a traitor, and a closet sympathizer with the Muslim Brotherhood.

On March 14 Obama meets with British Prime Minister David Cameron at the White House. After the meeting Obama and Cameron meet with reporters, Obama states, “Our objectives are common, which is [that] we want to make sure that we have governments that are lean, that are effective, that are efficient, that are providing opportunity to our people, uh, that are properly paid for so that we’re not leaving it to the next generation.”

JT: What profundity! I didn't know that these were Obama's dictatorial goals!

FoxNews.com reports, “More than 200 Marines were told to take their weapons outside and leave them there before Defense Secretary Leon Panetta spoke to them Wednesday at Camp Leatherneck in Afghanistan. Afghan troops had already been told not to bring their guns in. ‘Something has come to light,’ Sgt. Maj. Brandon Hall told the troops. It was a highly unusual order, and some in the audience said they had never seen that happen before. Asked about the order, Hall said all he knew was that ‘I was told to get the weapons out.’”

JT: The next order from Panetta and Obama will be to send the Marines into combat without weapons. We just can't hurt the enemy! Why not send all allied forces in Afghanistan into enemy combat without weapons? Obama did receive a peace prize at one time. There is nothing more assuring for the enemy Taliban and Islamic terrorists than to have the US and its allies conduct war by peaceful means. Perhaps the Marines should sing songs to lull the Taliban and the Islamic terrorists to sleep, which would stop them from fighting.

An email to supporters from campaign manager James Messina states, “Friend, if the general election were held today, ...Obama would lose to Mitt Romney—according to the latest poll from Washington Post-ABC News. Now, many other polls put [Obama] on top, but all point to the same reality: We’re looking at a race that will be tighter than you think. If the idea of a President Romney scares you, it’s time to own a piece of this campaign”

JT: A Romney presidency does scare me, but not as much as a second term Obama. I would place the percentages as: I'm 1 percent scared that Romney could become president. I'm 1000-plus percent scared that Obama could win a second term!

Sarah Palin says that she is "willing and free to discuss [the] issues with [Obama] anywhere, anytime."

JT: SO AM I!

LifeNews.com reports, "The concern pro-life organizations had about the ObamaCare legislation funding abortions has been confirmed, as the Obama administration has issued the final rules on abortion funding governing the controversial health care law. Nestled within the 'individual mandate' in the ObamaCare act—that portion of the Act requiring every American to purchase government—approved insurance or pay a penalty—is an 'abortion premium mandate.' This mandate requires all persons enrolled in insurance plans that include elective abortion coverage to pay a separate premium [$1 per month] from their own pockets to fund abortion. As a result, many pro-life Americans will have to decide between a plan that violates their consciences by funding abortion, or a plan that may not meet their health needs."

JT: Come on Americans! Rally around Obama! Pay for abortions that you don't want! Pay for killing unborn babies!

On March 14, 2012, Debbie Wasserman Schultz sends an email from [democraticparty@democrats.org] to Dumbocrat supporters stating that they should fight for Planned Parenthood.

JT: Planned Parenthood is government-subsidized murder! Debbie Wasserman Schultz is one of the executioners!

Don Fredrick at The Obama Timeline reports, "The Obama administration states it may seek the death penalty for the crazed American soldier—who suffered a brain injury in Iraq and who might be wise to use the defense of Fort Hood jihadist Major Nidal Malik Hasan, who claims post-traumatic stress disorder and loss of control in a stressful work environment."

JT: Methinks that would be the argument Obama and his minions would use to save themselves from being hung for committing treason against the Constitution for the United States of America and the United States of America.

In Lake County, Florida, residents are outraged over a U.S. flag flying over the Democrat Party headquarters that has an image of Obama in place of the 50 stars. Local Democrat Party chairwoman Nancy Hurlbert tells outraged veterans they could not take it down: "This is private property. This is private property. You're not allowed to touch anything. I'll call the police." Hurlbert eventually takes down the offensive flag, but does not promise it will not reappear—after she checks with an attorney. Hurlbert tells Fox News, "It leads me to believe that it's not about the flag. Certain elements cannot accept Barack Obama as president."

JT: Well, if the Democratic Party goons cannot vet a presidential candidate, if they can ruin the economy of the USA in just under four years, if they can call their opponents cts, if Eric Holder can remain in his position after breaking numerous US laws, if Barack Hussein Obama can break almost every law in the Constitution for the United States of America, and if he can commit at least 32 felonies without any legal action being taken against him, then why can't he violate the regulations of the US Flag Code? It's only right for him and the Dumbocrats to do that. The same should happen to the flags that happened to the Korans! Burn them! The Koran is anti-humanity and the flags are un-American!

Reuters reports, "The Obama administration is leaving open the possibility of giving Moscow certain secret data on U.S. interceptor missiles due to help protect Europe from any Iranian missile strike. A deal is being sought by Washington that could include classified data exchange because it is in the U.S. interest to enlist Russia and its radar stations in the missile-defense effort, a Pentagon spokeswoman said Tuesday in written replies to Reuters. No decision has been made yet on whether the United States would offer data about the interceptors' 'velocity at burnout,' or VBO, said Air Force Lieutenant Colonel April Cunningham, the spokeswoman, but it is not being ruled out. VBO is at the heart of what Russia wants as the price for its cooperation, said Riki Ellison, head of the private Missile Defense Advocacy Alliance, who has close ties to missile defense and military officials. VBO tells how fast an interceptor is going when its rocket-booster motor fuel is spent and the motor burns out. With VBO and certain other technical data, Moscow could more readily develop countermeasures and strategies to defeat the system and transfer the information to others, Ellison said."

JT: This doesn't only smell of treason, it is treason!

Congressman Frank Wolf (R-VA) stated last week, "This administration has a horrible record on human rights and religious freedom," and on the issue of Sudan, "I think it's been a fiasco and a disaster."

JT: Why is everyone upset over Obama's non-handling of the genocide in Sudan? He is doing exactly what a Muslim jihadist does: allow that non-believers in Islam are killed. He will surely go down in history as a second Mohammed! ... and a lunatic!!!

LifeNews.com reports, "The White House announced today that colleges and universities will also be forced to join religious employers in instituting the new HHS mandate that requires them to provide coverage for birth control and drugs that may cause abortions. The Health and Human Services Department released information Friday afternoon saying college student health care plans will be treated like employees' plans—making them subject to the mandate the Obama administration put in place that has upset pro-life groups for its violation of religious liberties. The decision means college students — who already get abortions at the highest rate compared with women in other age categories, will be able to get free birth control pills, Plan B pills and the ella drug that causes early-term abortions days after conception.”

JT: Great work Obama! You are killing American morals and American futures with one blow of evil!

From the HuffingtonPost.com (also known as the Hustler Post?): “An unexpected surge in support to place same-sex marriage on the Democratic Party platform at the August convention has energized LGBT [lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender] advocates and complicated an already delicate situation facing ...Obama’s reelection campaign. In the past month, almost half of all Democratic senators, several of Obama’s national campaign co-chairs, the House Minority Leader [Nancy Pelosi] and the chairman of the Democratic convention, among others, have said they support adding marriage equality to the platform. Were this the position that [Obama] held, such proclamations would not be a problem. But Obama says he is still publicly ‘evolving’ on marriage equality. And the wave of support to make it a component of his convention has both surprised aides and set off a private push to keep emotions and expectations in check.”

JT: I think the following rights should be placed in the political platform at the Dumbocratic Noxional Convulsion:

1. Obama has the legal right to marry Bo.

2. Michelle has the legal right to marry her XXL hamburgers before she gouges them down!

I see no reason why liberals, progressives, occupiers, union thugs, obots, and all of the lump-proletariats who have their brains somewhere else other than in their heads would not emphatically agree!
