JUST THINKING

Number 15

JT: Methinks Obama is sad because there were no male prostitutes and nobody invited him!

Concerning the SS prostitution scandal: Senator Susan Collins (R-ME) states, "There are 11 agents involved. Twenty or 21 women foreign nationals were brought to the hotel, but allegedly Marines were involved with the rest. ...Who were these women? Could they have been members of groups hostile to the United States? Could they have planted bugs, disabled weapons, or in any others jeopardized security of [Obama] or our country?"

JT: All of the answers to her questions are YES because the women belonged to an official group of Obama's Female Obots in Columbia (OFOC)!

Salafists in Germany are undertaking a propaganda initiative by giving away free copies of the Koran in the pedestrian zones of selected German cities.

JT: Now get this! The German authorities are against the Salafists giving away free copies of the Koran. Why? Because the Salafists are pro-Islamic terror and anti-human rights. Although the German authorities emphasize that all Islamic terrorists are really Salafists, or Salafist-oriented, not all Salafists are terrorists. Furthermore, the German authorities and Islamic organizations in Germany say that the Salafists giving away the Koran is an insult to Islam. The gullible German public and politicians are swallowing their crap that Islam is peaceful. Now where do you suppose the Salafists get their worldview of instituting Sharia Law, changing the world into Islamic dominance, and the extinction of democratic principles and human rights? From the Koran, regardless of who gives it away free! Evidently, the German authorities cannot think logically from A to B!

The Associated Press, citing an anonymous tip, reported that the allegations involved prostitutes in Cartagena, the city hosting the gathering. The AP also said 12 agents were involved. The Washington Post cited the president of the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association, Jon Adler, as saying that the allegations were tied to at least one agent being involved with prostitutes in Cartagena. Secret Service spokesman Edwin Donovan declined to confirm that the conduct involved prostitutes. "There have been allegations of misconduct made against Secret Service personnel in Cartagena, Colombia prior to the President's trip. Because of this, those personnel are being relieved of their assignments, returned to their place of duty, and are being replaced by other Secret Service personnel. The Secret Service takes all allegations of misconduct seriously. This entire matter has been turned over to our Office of Professional Responsibility, which serves as the agency's internal affairs component," Donovan said in a statement sent to Yahoo News by email.

JT: Evidently, this behavior is no longer a secret of the service. However, the extra-marital relations of Barry and how he services and Michelle and how she is serviced must be kept a secret.

Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton addresses the G8 foreign ministers at the start of a working session at Blair House in Washington on Wednesday. Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton is allowing U.S. funds to flow to the West Bank and Gaza despite a hold by House Foreign Affairs Committee Chairwoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen, R-Fla., a rare display of executive-branch authority that angered the key lawmaker concerned about protecting her congressional oversight role.

A State Department official said that a letter was delivered on Tuesday to key members of Congress informing them of Clinton's decision to move forward with the $147 million package of the fiscal year 2011 economic support funds for the Palestinian people, despite Ros-Lehtinen's hold. Administrations generally do not disburse funding over the objections of lawmakers on relevant committees. The funds deliver "critical support to the Palestinian people and those leaders seeking to combat extremism within their society and build a more stable future. Without funding, our programs risk cancellation," the official, who was not authorized to speak about the issue, said in an e-mail. "Such an occurrence would undermine the progress that has been made in recent years in building Palestinian institutions and improving stability, security, and economic prospects, which benefits Israelis and Palestinians alike." Late last month, Ros-Lehtinen sent a letter to Clinton and U.S. Agency for International Development Administrator Rajiv Shah, informing them she will lift her hold on some $88.6 million of the Palestinian aid package -- out of the full $147 million -- under special conditions. Appropriations State and Foreign Operations Subcommittee Chairwoman Kay Granger, R-Texas, agreed to release her hold on the full assistance package on humanitarian grounds. "The U.S. has given $3 billion in aid to the Palestinians in the last five years alone, and what do we have to show for it?" Ros-Lehtinen said on Wednesday in a statement to National Journal. "Now the administration is sending even more. Where is the accountability for U.S. taxpayer dollars?"

JT: The U.S. taxpayers need no accountability. Democrats can be trusted to make good investments. Somehow the Palestinians have to pay for the weapons they need to combat evil Israel. It's only right that these poor people are supported by the Muslim Brotherhood's American representative Hillary Clinton! We have to support such peace initiatives!

Fazil Say, a virtuoso pianist and composer, faces an investigation over tweeting remarks considered offensive to Muslims, Christians and Jews. Say used Twitter to question whether Islamic heaven is like a brothel or a pub, citing Qu'ranic verses that describe rivers of drinks and beautiful women for those admitted to paradise. He also tweeted about a muezzin who recited the evening call to prayer in under 30 seconds, surmising the religious man was either impatient to see his lover or get drunk on a beverage called raki.

JT: I think Fazil Say's questions are extremely valid. Moreover, a muezzin who recites the evening call to prayer in under 30 seconds deserves to be in Mohammed's Book of World Records. What else is in Mohammed's Book of World Records? Here are some examples: The largest, massive extinction of Christian cultures and beliefs; more deaths under the sword of Islam than under both World Wars and Communist pogroms; the re-institution of slavery in the post-Roman Empire age. The list could go on ad infinitum. If you want more information, consult http://wikiislam.net/wiki/Main\_Page.

According to Politico, "The (~~presidential~~, really dictatorial) order creates a working group that includes various White House offices such as the Council on Environmental Quality and National Economic Council, as well as relevant cabinet departments and agencies like Interior, EPA and Department of Homeland Security. It comes on the heels of complaints by GOP leaders—including Mitt Romney—and the gas industry that too many departments are working on hydraulic fracturing regulations, potentially halting the growth of the industry.” Don Fredrick at The Obama Timeline notes Romney had warned that Obama “...has eight different agencies trying to fight their way to become regulators of the gas extraction technology known as fracking. And the intent, of course, is to slow down the development of our own resources.” The more cynical might believe that Obama’s executive order is merely one step of many in plans to nationalize the industry and place it under the complete control of the federal government. The order declares that the federal working group will “support the safe and responsible production of domestic unconventional natural gas by performing the following functions: coordinate agency policy activities, share scientific, environmental, technical and economic information, coordination with federal government in long-term planning, and ‘consult with other agencies as appropriate.’” It is unclear why the Department of Health and Human Services has anything to do with those functions and is included in the working group.

JT: Now for my two cents! Methinks there are way too many bureauerats involved in Obama's working group. At the same time, perhaps the gas industry could tap the gas that these bureaucrats make. Feed them all beans and coriander to help them digest their putrid thoughts and make out of them clean, flatulent gas. The Council on Environmental Quality and National Economic Council, as well as relevant cabinet departments and agencies like Interior, EPA and Department of Homeland Security in Obama's working group could emit self-sustainable gas for their homes. For example, "Humans (men and women alike) normally release 0.5 - 1 liters of rectal gas per 24 hours." These above bureaucrats are so bloated that the release at least 2 liters per 24 hours! The "production of hydrogen in humans is much greater than methane production." This tells me that these individuals are free, radical hydrogen bombs, disguised in a sulphurous odor. What America needs is a new federal, shovel-ready (in case the gas turns into something else, which is what normally happens with bureaucracies) initiative that could be termed the Human Fart Project. They could start with the occupants of the White House. For those readers who are interested in the scientific possibilities go to:

At CBSNews.com Sharyl Attkisson reports that some labor union members in Michigan are angry that funds from Obama's stimulus legislation are being used to pay South Korean workers at two plants that manufacture batteries for electric vehicles. ... At least 11 Asian firms are performing work for LG Chem.

JT: Why should the unions worry about this development? Obama is only keeping his promise to share the wealth (around the world)!

While in Columbia, Obama states, "I want to thank President Santos [Juan Manuel Santos Calderón] and the people of Colombia for the extraordinary hospitality in the beautiful city of Cartagena. We're having a wonderful time. And usually when I take these summit trips, part of my job is to scout out where I may want to bring Michelle back later for vacation. So we'll make sure to come back sometime in the near future."

JT: It won't be a vacation. It will be official government business. Obama will officially play official golf with the officially elected president of official Columbia, Juan Manuel Santos Calderón, on an official government golf course paid for by the official American taxpayers to ensure that the unofficial vacation is really official.

At Townhall.com Kate Hick writes, "...speculation is rising that last week's 'Rosenflap' episode may have paved the way for an Obama/Clinton ticket. Hillary Clinton. Hilary Rosen is the now-infamous Democratic strategist who shoved both feet in her mouth faster than you can say, 'Stay at home mom,' and now, it seems, there's some concern over the damage she may have done to a staunchly pro-Obama voting bloc: women. ...The theory goes that if Mitt [Romney] starts picking up more support of the feminine persuasion, the Dems may have to drop Joe [Biden] for Hillary. Michael Goodwin of the New York Post says he believes without a doubt that Team Obama would make the swap if it could secure them a win, despite the fact that they're adamant about keeping Biden. Hillary, he says, is their potential ace in the hole, and the numbers show that Obama desperately needs women to be competitive this year."

JT: If you think that Hillary Clinton is sweet, read further! If you think that Hillary Clinton isn't sweet, read further! Hillary Clinton would be an interesting choice for the vice-presidency, or should I say vice? I can imagine her vice speeches being interlaced with expletives. The following are some non-edited examples. If you are abhorred, then don't read this section. She would refer to the Israeli Minister President Benjamin Netanyahu as she once referred to an aide with "FUCKING JEW BASTARD". [New York Post, 15 July 2000.] (<http://calhoununderground.wordpress.com/2007/11/28/about-ms-charming-hillary-clinton/>)

Hillary Clinton's foul-mouthed tidbits are too numerous to be included here. However, here are some examples from <http://aman.members.sonic.net/clintons.html>. The following five quotations are from Alec Flegon's Dictionary of English Sex Quotations (London: Flegon Press, 1996):

- L.D. Brown, a member of Clinton's former security staff and bodyguard in Arkansas, stated that Hillary is "as foul-mouthed as any sailor you'd ever meet." (p. 147)
- As reported by Bill's security staff, Hillary frequently erupted in expletive-filled tirades against him. "I can't believe you would ask a fucking question like that!" Or, about his shaky driving, "You're gonna get us fucking killed!" (p. 147)
- She shouted at Bill over his unfaithfulness: "I need to be fucked more than twice a year!" (p. 170)

- Hillary to Larry Patterson, an Arkansas state trooper and Clinton bodyguard from 1986 to 1993, who was bringing a judge's wife to the Little Rock airport: "What the fuck do you think you're doing? I know who that whore is." (p. 171)
- Coming out of the Arkansas governor's mansion early morning on Labor Day 1991, Hillary screamed: "Where is the goddamn fucking flag? I want the goddamn fucking flag up every fucking morning at fucking sunrise!" (p. 173).

Patterson observed Hillary standing at the bottom of the stairs in the governor's mansion, and Bill at the top of the stairs with little Chelsea beside him, as Hillary screamed at him at the top of her lungs: "Goddamn stupid fucking fool!" [NewsMax, 15 July 2000]

Patterson stated that Bill and Hillary Clinton would frequently argue with each other using the worst expletives known to mankind, sometimes in the presence of their daughter Chelsea. Some of the anti-Semitic slurs with which she commonly laced her tirades against Bill were "Jew motherfucker," "Jew Boy" and "Jew Bastard." [NewsMax, 15 and 17 July 2000]

"If she disagreed with Bill Clinton or she disagreed with some of the Jewish community in Little Rock -- or some of the ethnic community -- she would often make these statements." "She would say 'Jew Bastard' or call her husband a 'Jew boy' or a 'motherfucking Jew,'" Patterson told the WABC New York radio audience. [Carl Limbacher and NewsMax Staff, 17 July 2000]"

"Here are more quotes from foul-mouthed, ill-tempered, violent, and abusive Hillary, our wannabe President from Hell, from various sources, providing more detailed bibliographical information.

- "Where is the goddamn fucking flag? I want the goddamn fucking flag up every fucking morning at fucking sunrise." (From Inside The White House by Ronald Kessler, p. 244 -- Hillary to the staff at the Arkansas Governor's mansion on Labor Day, 1991)

- "You sold out, you mother fucker! You sold out!" (From Inside by Joseph Califano, p. 213 -- Hillary yelling at Democrat lawyer)
- "Fuck off! It's enough that I have to see you shit-kickers every day, I'm not going to talk to you too!! Just do your goddamn job and keep your mouth shut." (From American Evita by Christopher Anderson, p. 90 -- Hillary to her State Trooper bodyguards after one of them greeted her with "Good Morning.")
- "You fucking idiot." (From Crossfire, p. 84 -- Hillary to a State Trooper who was driving her to an event)
- "If you want to remain on this detail, get your fucking ass over here and grab those bags!" (From The First Partner, p. 259 -- Hillary to a Secret Service Agent who was reluctant to carry her luggage because he wanted to keep his hands free in case of an incident)
- "Get fucked! Get the fuck out of my way!!! Get out of my face!!!" (From Hillary's Scheme, p. 89 -- Hillary's various comments to her Secret Service detail agents)
- "Stay the fuck back, stay the fuck away from me! Don't come within ten yards of me, or else! Just fucking do as I say, Okay!!!" (From Unlimited Access by Clinton FBI Agent in Charge, Gary Aldrige, p. 139 -- Hillary screaming at her Secret Service detail)
- "Where's the miserable cock sucker?" (From The Truth About Hillary by Edward Klein, p. 5 -- Hillary shouting at a Secret Service officer)
- "Son of a bitch."(From American Evita by Christopher Anderson, p. 259 -- Hillary's opinion of President George W. Bush when she found out he secretly visited Iraq just days before her highly publicized trip to Iraq)
- "Come on Bill, put your dick up! You can't fuck her here!!!" (From Inside The White House by Ronald Kessler, p. 243 - Hillary to Gov. Clinton when she spotted him talking with an attractive female at an Arkansas political rally)

Her foul, Chicago politics mouth did not suddenly become clean in the year 2001!
(<http://sport.myforum.pl/viewtopic.php?f=11&t=3355&p=3672>).

This is approximately 1% of the examples. The bold emphasis is not mine. It is probably Hillary Clinton emphasizing her intelligence and political correctness!

FoxNews.com reports, "Exposing a rift with Israel, ...Obama on Sunday insisted that the U.S. had not 'given anything away' in new talks with Iran as he defended his continued push for a diplomatic resolution to the dispute over Tehran's nuclear ambitions.

JT: Obama gave away precious time. The winner will be Iran and the loser will be Israel. Just what Obama wants.

***

Nation of Islam leader Louis Farrakhan addresses a crowd at Lemoyne-Owens College in Memphis, Tennessee, He states, "[T]here is no real leadership if it's not rooted in moral character. ...Leadership is nothing to play with. 'Cause people tomorrow, maybe in a few days, are gonna kill their leaders who've been selling them out. That's why we [are] in this shape that we're in right now, because we had corrupt people, or people who started off good and got corrupted."

JT: Words of wisdom from Louis Farrakhan? That is a contradiction in nomenclatures!

According to U.S. Trade & Aid Monitor, "Kenyan businesses lately are increasingly becoming recipients of U.S. government largesse, as the Obama Administration, among pursuing other endeavors, aims to expand 'livestock-related economic opportunities' in that nation. ...[A] review of U.S. government contracting actions ...indicates a spike of activity in Kenya in a variety of sectors." While 25 million Americans are unemployed or underemployed, "The White House is committing to a five-year effort to 'improve the inclusiveness and competitiveness' of the livestock industry specifically in Marsabit and Garissa counties, Kenya..."

JT: Rumor has it that Barry's and Michelle's favorite fruits are Kenyan bananas.

Participants in the Obama-endorsed Occupy Wall Street movement riot in New York City. NYPost.com reports, "... They ... took to the streets marching against traffic chanting, 'F--- the NYPD!' 'Cops are murderers!' and 'All pigs must die!' authorities said.

JT: The irony of the calls of death are that the murderers of American society and culture are in the White House, and if the OWS movement wants to kill pigs, Michelle will have nothing to eat except lobster!

ABC's Cokie Roberts ... comments, "Romney has to find a narrative about his wealth. I mean that's really where he is. We're not talking about his taxes. We're talking about how much money he has. And he's very, very, very rich. And he needs to find a way to talk about that so that voters aren't turned off."

JT: I think the solution is to tell the truth. Romney worked for his millions. Obama and his minions get their money from corruption and illegal scams!

***

"The British Labor Party has suspended the membership of its party member and a British parliamentarian of Kashmiri origin, Lord Nazir Ahmed, media reported Monday. ...Many of [Ahmed's] political activities relate to the Islamic community both in the UK and abroad, and he has often attracted controversy." Ahmed, a Muslim member of the British House of Lords, had expressed anger over a U.S. reward for the capture of Hafiz Muhammad Saeed, the head of Lashkar-e-Taiba, a militant Islamist terrorist organization in South Asia that operates from his homeland of Pakistan. On April 13 Ahmed called the reward for Saeed an "insult to all Muslims." and a "challenge [to the] dignity of the Muslim ummah,"

JT: Nazir Ahmed should realize, but he won't, that the real "insult to all Muslims." and a "challenge [to the] dignity of the Muslim ummah," is Islam itself!

In response to questions from the House Oversight and Government Reform Committee about an extravagant conference in Las Vegas thrown by the General Services Administration (GSA)—that cost the taxpayers almost $823,000—official Jeff Neely responds, "Mr. Chairman, on the advice of my counsel I respectfully decline to answer based upon my Fifth Amendment constitutionally privilege."

JT: "based upon my Fifth Amendment constitutionally privilege." Wonderful grammar! Perhaps one of the reasons why bureaucrats are so aloof is because they cannot speak English correctly. If they can't speak it correctly, they can't read it correctly. Therefore, they cannot be responsible for their actions because they are grammatically handicapped and really don't understand what law says and ethics and morals are. In short, they are dumb, oops, they are not of sound mind!

***

From <http://www.powerlineblog.com/archives/2012/04/obamas-gaffes-are-his-own.php>. "Yesterday Barack Obama addressed the Summit of the Americas in Colombia and spoke about the conflict between the United Kingdom and Argentina over the Falklands. Obama seemed to tilt toward Argentina by calling the islands the "Malvinas" rather than the Falklands, which Argentina insists is their proper name.

Only Obama didn't say Malvinas, he said Maldives—an entirely different group of islands located thousands of miles from the Falklands in the Indian Ocean.

So with one word, Obama both offended the British and made himself a laughingstock with the Latin Americans. Here in the U.S., we are used to such embarrassing errors by our president, but the international press hasn't quite caught up. My complaint, specifically, is about this account of Obama's gaffe in the Telegraph, not a particularly left-wing paper by British standards."

JT: Because Obama comes from Kenya and doesn't know in which Hawaiian hospital he was born, and knows that Austrian is a language, and knows that the United States of America has 57 states, and knows how to make a booming economy with 15 trillion debt, why isn't it okay for him to say that Argentina has sovereign rights over the Maldives?

From <http://reason.com/blog/2012/04/16/nothing-left-to-cut-california-spends-20>, we read that California spent $205,000 to move a $15 shrub!

JT: Methinks it would have been a better investment for California and the USA to move Barry and Michelle into the Arabian wilderness.

***

At DailyCaller.com we read, "The House Financial Services Committee plans to release a new Web resource aimed at tracking the regulatory burden of the Dodd-Frank financial overhaul Congress passed in 2010. The 'Dodd-Frank Burden Tracker' is set to measure how much of a negative effect the legislation will have. ...Regulators have written only 185 of the expected 400 rules. But those 185 rules are expected to cost the private sector more than 24 million man-hours each year to comply."

JT: This is government efficiency. Yet something is missing! Who is going to control the controllers who control the controllers controlling the rules in the Dodd-Frank Burden Tracker?

Concerning the CNN poll that shows Obama leading Mitt Romney 52–43 percent.

JT: I wonder if CNN polled those who said they were going to vote for Obama multiple times in multiple cities in multiple states? I think they also polled deceased persons who said that they would arise from their graves on Election Day in November 2012 and vote for Obama. I am certain that all cartoon characters, except Alfred E. Newman, were polled in favor of Obama!

First Solar, the nation's largest maker of solar panels, is laying off 2,000 workers because of weak demand for its products. The Obama administration gave the company $3.1 billion in federal loan guarantees in 2011—allegedly to create jobs.

JT: First Solar is laying off 1,200 workers and closing its plant in Frankfurt on the Oder, Germany. Since 2006, First Solar has received direct German subsidies totaling 25 million Euros, ca. 33 million dollars. The Brandenburg government is investigating how many Euros can be retrieved from First Solar.

***

The economic genius Obama wants Congress to give him $52 million to spend on overseeing speculation in the oil market and says, “A few weeks ago, Congress had the chance to stand up for families already paying an extra premium at the pump, but congressional Republicans voted to keep spending billions of Americans’ hard-earned tax dollars on more unnecessary subsidies for big oil companies. So here’s a chance to make amends.”

JT: Translation: Obama is going to establish government control of the oil market!

WashingtonExaminer.com reports that during a fundraiser, "...Michelle Obama recalled her father's battle with multiple sclerosis (MS) as she explained 'what's at stake' in this election between [her husband] and Mitt Romney—whose wife has MS. Mrs. Obama recalled her father's MS during a campaign fundraiser, saying he 'had MS, was a blue-collar city worker all his life ...[my parents] saved for us, they sacrificed everything for us. Why? Because they wanted something more for me and my brother.' [She] summarized the anecdote by saying 'that's what's at stake'—by which she referred to the idea that 'if you work hard, you can build a decent life for yourself and an even better life for your kids ....So believe me, [my husband] resident knows what it means when a family struggles,' she added after talking about his life raised by a single mom.

JT: Now for some true facts and they are many!

1. Michelle Obama's father, Fraser C. Robinson III, was a pump worker in the water works of the City of Chicago. He had the responsible, political pay-off work of overseeing the boilers of the city's water treatment plant. Well, Michelle Obama, let's tell the true story! "Mrs. Obama was literally born into the Chicago political corruptocracy. Her father, Fraser Robinson, was a volunteer precinct captain for the Democrat Party. Washington Post writer Liza Mundy called him 'an essential member of the powerful political machine run by [Richard J.] Daley, who, in addition to being mayor, was the chairman of the Cook County Democratic National committee, meaning he controlled both the government and the political party, and could use one to do the other's bidding.' Former alderman Leon Despres bluntly told Mundy that it was 'overwhelmingly likely' that Robinson's job at the city water department was a reward for his loyalty. 'The water department, where Fraser Robinson worked, was a renowned repository for patronage jobs.' " (Michelle Malkin, Culture of Corruption, p. 43.)
2. Fraser C. Robinson was not the only American with MS.
3. Mrs. Robinson was a secretary for Spiegel Catalog and a bank. These are not positions to be ashamed of. They are positions with formidable paychecks.

4. Michelle talks about unity. The unified side of life is one's core, one's being. Life's compass consists of God, family, friends one can really count on, knowledge, morals, honesty, and patriotism. Mrs. Thug may believe that she possesses these. However, it would be positive if Michelle Obama would show honesty, morals, and patriotism.
5. Michelle talks about struggle. What are Mrs. and Mr. Thug doing? They are pulling off a coup d'état of the most villainous and treasonous kind. Mrs. Thug never struggled for anything, except to take the taxpayers' money for personal vacations, trips, and do-nothing positions.
6. She was recruited to work for Mayor Richard Daley by the criminal Valerie Slumlord Jarrett. Michelle Obama took the new position only after guarantees that she would be looked after and adequately paid. (Michelle Malkin, Culture of Corruption, p. 50.)
7. Michelle worked for Public Allies, which was and is a (criminal) organization that is taxpayer-funded protesters' money. It is a socialist/communist scam with the intention of destroying America's capitalist and republican principles. Public Allies was founded by Vanessa Kirsch and Katrina Browne in Washington, D. C. in 1992 and by Barack Hussein Obama in Chicago in 1992. Michelle Obama became its executive director. The organization uses taxpayer money to pay people to sign up as members. The members' job is to protest. Their creed is that America is a racist, oppressive nation in need of social change into socialism/communism.
8. Michelle complains that life is hard. Life isn't hard. It is difficult. What intelligence! Life is not easy! Man muss das Leben eben nehmen wie das Leben eben ist! (One must just accept this life simply as it is!) Perhaps one should become a socialist/communist. Then life is easy. The government and the party will do everything for you, pay everything for you, and you can become like Mrs. and Mr. Thug, parasites that live off of the hard-working taxpayers. In the United States of America the Thugs and the unions have brought about the situation where there are now more legal and illegal parasites than there are legal producers. (<http://www.thefiscaltimes.com/Columns/2011/04/18/Budget-Deficit-Government-Handouts-Top-Tax-Income.aspx>)

Michelle wants people to vote for Mr. Thug for a new foundation in America. The problem is, without morals, without respect for and obedience to the Constitution for the United States of America, without respect for political opponents, without a respect for the republican form of government, without respect for the free market system, and above all, without patriotism, the foundation of the United States of America is non-existent!

Ted Nugent says, "I'm using my First Amendment. The job of 'we the people' is to spotlight cockroaches, and come November we're going to stomp them at the voting booth."

JT: I'll supply the photos for the wanted posters! I'll bring the rope! (to tie them up!), I'll do practically anything to get them out of office and into prison! Even Just Thinking is doing something!
