JUST THINKING

Number 17

Obama's new campaign slogan is Forward.

JT: What a stroke of genius! Here's why! European socialists used it and still do. Communists used it and still do. The NAZIS used it and they still do! Forward, Forward, (Vorwärts, Vorwärts)

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7\_nK3gx4kAU

It is interesting that the final result is that they all went backwards!

Vorwärts was often used in the Wehrmacht (German Army) war reports:
<http://home.arcor.de/hitlerjugendzeitung/wehrmacht.htm>

Vorwärts is also a communist/socialist publication in Switzerland. Yup! Switzerland! They don't seem to make a distinction between communist and socialist in Switzerland.

http://de.wikipedia.org/wiki/Vorw%C3%A4rts\_%28Schweiz%29

The above is only starters. Here is more: READ ALL OF IT AND THE LINKS!

Vice President Joe "gaffe master" Biden tells an audience, "Now is the time to heed the timeless advice from Teddy Roosevelt, 'Speak softly, and carry a big stick.' End of quote. I promise you, [Obama] has a big stick. I promise you."

JT: That is interesting. How close are Biden and Obama. Yeah! I've edited the quotation somewhat. The last segment is " ... Obama understands what Governor Romney apparently doesn't." Oh my goodness, that makes Biden's statement more interesting! What does Biden mean by big stick? Does he mean David Axelrod, Saul Alinsky's Rules for Radicals, Reggie Love, some other body servant, Michelle?

The CBS affiliate in Chicago reports it "has obtained a copy of a Red Cross e-mail sent to volunteers in the Milwaukee area. It said the NATO summit 'may create unrest or another national security incident. The American Red Cross in southeastern Wisconsin has been asked to place a number of shelters on standby in the event of evacuation of Chicago.' According to a chapter spokesperson, the evacuation plan is not theirs alone. 'Our direction has come from the City of Chicago and the Secret Service,' she said.

JT: Methinks that the possible evacuation will be the result of protests by Islamic organizations that the Red Cross is being involved in the security of the NATO summit and not the Red Crescent. We all know how Muslims are insulted by any cross.

"Egyptian husbands will soon be legally allowed to have sex with their dead wives—for up to six hours after their death. The controversial new law is part of a raft of measures being introduced by the Islamist-dominated parliament. It will also see the minimum age of marriage lowered to 14 and the ridding of women's rights of getting education and employment."

JT: Typical Mohammed and his allahu akbar! Of course, Muslims have this right of disrespecting their wives and insulting humane behavior. Perhaps they can even beat them before they are buried. Okay, that is Islam! Obama says, "Respect it!"

Respectfully, I say to ...Obama, ...

JT: This is often heard in the o-so-politically-correct exchange of words. I'm sick of it! I'm tired of hearing it! There is no respect due to Obama. Forget the crap and just say, "I'm telling Obama ..."

Interviewed by Fox News, Congressman Steve King (R-IA) states, “If I were [Obama], I would find a way for [Attorney General] Eric Holder to step down, and it would be characterized as a firing. ...And as more of this [Operation Fast and Furious scandal] unfolds—and I think there is substantially more—you remember that September 19 is kind of the date that bad things happen before elections. I don’t think that [Congressman] Darrell Issa [chairman of the House Oversight and Government Reform Committee] is planning a date like that... but as this moves forward, and [if] I’m [Obama], I’d be very worried that this comes to a crescendo sometime before September 19 of this year. For those reasons ...I would remove Eric Holder from the target zone here—put somebody else in who’s determined to clean this up. I would dump all this information out in the public and just come clean and put it behind me. That’s what any responsible public official would do.”

JT: Now that is a harsh Republican slapping of the hand! Wow! What disciplinary action! Holder should be brought to trial before Congress and be sent off to prison for as long as possible. Congressman King can slap Holder's hands when Holder is released shortly before his death. I mean, we surely have to show some clemency.

Obama wants to ‘crucify’ oil and gas producers so they can end hydraulic fracturing, knowing full well that if you stop hydraulic fracturing, you kill domestic oil and gas production. Obama also wants all women to use contraceptives and abort as much as they want. Obama also wants unions in every corner of our lives.

JT: The progressives are all enthralled about what Obama wants. The greatest want is to destroy America. These programs will do it! Imagine unions deciding when and where people can love each other. Oh, Obama wants that to happen also, particularly with his contraceptive policy. Aren't the workers who produce contraceptives for women unionized? Isn't their union named DAP (Destroy America's Population)? Aren't the workers who produce condoms unionized? Isn't their union called RAFF (Rubbering America's Future Forever)? Aren't those who are pro-abortion in their own union? Isn't it called BAAAKT (Babies Are Anti-American Kill Them)? I know what I want! I want Obama and all of his minions to go where they belong. Hell! That's where they came from!

The Labor Department states, "The Obama administration is firmly committed to promoting family farmers and respecting the rural way of life, especially the role that parents and other family members play in passing those traditions down through the generations." Therefore, The Labor Department said it is withdrawing proposed rules that would ban children younger than 16 from using most power-driven farm equipment, including tractors.

JT: Translation: Of course Obama "is firmly committed to promoting family farmers and respecting the rural way of life" as long as they work on government kolkhozes and try to reach the goals of the party's five-year plan! The only way the regulations will not be implemented is to make sure that Obama and the Democrats never see political light or breathe political air for the next hundred years! Don't be surprised when the regulations are snuck in via some other fashion, particularly if he is re-elected. God forbid! I pray every day that Obama will be defeated in November, even if he does fix the voting results, which he will do!

***

Kimberly Strassel, reporting in The Wall Street Journal on the Obama campaign's new "enemies list"—, says, "If ...Obama isn't going to act like a president, he bolsters the argument that he doesn't deserve to be one."

JT: Kimberly Strassel! Write this behind your ears! Obama never said that he would act like a president. Obama, by his actions, always said that he would act like an America-hating-socialist-communist-fascist dictator!

It is worth repeating the complete article reference!

At Breitbart.com, Dan Riehl reports, "A high-powered Wall St. CEO and early, influential Obama supporter, Donald F. Donahue of the Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation (DTCC), may be using his significant clout on behalf of the Obama administration and a questionable Iranian-linked strategic partner to stand in the way of American military families trying to recover billions of dollars to which they are legally entitled after being victimized by the infamous 1983 Iranian-sponsored bombing of a U.S. Marine Corp barracks in Beirut. Since the 1983 bombing, there have been numerous court rulings siding with those victimized by state-sponsored terrorism, allowing them to sue foreign governments for damages. The estates of the Marines killed in Beirut were recently awarded $2.16 billion in damages by a Federal judge. Lawyers have already attached nearly two billion dollars of Iran's money, which sits frozen at Citibank in New York. The key question is, will that money simply flow back to Iran, will it do that as part of an Obama foreign policy initiative, or will it be handed over to the families who have sued and won a right to it being paid out as damages for the terrorism in 1983? Legislation currently working its way through Congress is just one more attempt to resolve the issue in favor of the families by simplifying their route to justice despite objections by Iran and the Executive branch. DTCC seems intent on weakening the legislation. ...In foreign policy terms, it's believed that Obama and his State Department would prefer the flexibility of being able to allow the $2 billion plus in question to flow back to terrorist-supporting Iran as a fig leaf of sorts in Obama's most recent appeasement campaign. A release of the funds back to Iran—whether overtly, or through a wink and a nod... is thought to represent leverage for Obama's State Department to use in the nuclear negotiations.

JT: When will American diplomats and politicians – any diplomat and politician in the non-Islamic world – come to the realization that they will never be able to use anything as leverage against Iran or any Islamic country? The mullahs, Muslims, and Islam consider that any attempt at using leverage against them is a sign of weakness. You don't use leverage. You call their bluff and punish them totally.

On April 27 the Chicago Tribune reports, “Republican House leaders have drafted a proposed contempt of Congress citation against Atty. Gen. Eric H. Holder Jr. in which they charge that he and his Justice Department have repeatedly ‘obstructed and slowed’ the Capitol Hill investigation into the ATF’s flawed Fast and Furious gun-tracking operation. The 48-page draft citation is being drawn up by Rep. Darrell Issa [R-CA], chairman of the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform. Top committee officials recently met for most of a day in the House speaker’s office and were given the green light to proceed toward a contempt citation, according to sources who declined to be identified.”

JT: This might be a good reason for Obama to call out a condition of government emergency and close down Congress! That would mean that they would be drawing their salaries for doing nothing, which most of them are doing anyway!

Obama's average job approval rating, from six major polls conducted in April, is 47.7 percent, with a high of 49 percent and a low of 45 percent.

JT: Are Americans really that dumbed down? I don't know about you, but what I know about Obama's activity as a thug dictator means these figures are way too high. Realistically he should be around 15%, 20% and 10% respectively and even those figures are high considering America's present condition.

***

Obama campaigns at the University of Iowa in Iowa City where, reports CNSNews.com, courses include "Politicos of Reproduction" and "Queer Rhetoric."

JT: Obama is certainly an example of what can happen to a queer when rhetoric is written for him.

Economist Robert Wenzel, editor-publisher of EconomicPolicyJournal.com, in addressing the New York Federal Reserve Bank says, "... Austrian Business cycle theorists are regularly ignored by the Fed, yet they have the best records with regard to spotting overall downturns, and further they specifically recognized the developing housing bubble."

JT: Remember when Obama said, "... There's a lot of -- I don't know what the term is in Austrian, wheeling and dealing." (confusing German for Austrian, a language which does not exist, Strasbourg, France, April 6, 2009) Well Austrians speak German and English! Their economic English is so clear and comprehensible that Obama would not understand it. Perhaps that is why he has no clue concerning positive economic policies.

PS: Austrians, of course claim they speak Austrian, sometimes calling what they speak Austrian-German. What they mean is that they speak German with different regional dialects. If you are not fluent in German, and do not have an ear for dialects and accents, you won't understand a word of what they say. For example: In Tyrolean Austria near Switzerland: Holshaeecse? German: Holst du Eis? English: Are you getting an ice-cream?

If you are interested in an overview, read: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Austrian\_German.

From <http://www.therightscoop.com/obama-overrides-congress-signs-waiver-to-send-192-million-to-palestinian-authority/>, we read: "Times of Israel – US President Barack Obama has lifted a ban on financial aid to the Palestinian Authority.

Obama stated that the aid was “important to the security interests of the United States.”

The US Congress froze a $192 million aid package to the Palestinian Authority after its president, Mahmoud Abbas, defied US pressure and sought to attain UN endorsement of Palestinian statehood last September. The presidential waiver means that aid can now be delivered."

JT: What else would you expect from someone who eats dog meat?

Obama grants $192 million to the Palestinian Authority by signing a waiver that allows him to do so.

JT: This is typical dictatorial behavior à la Mohammed, you know, the inventor of Islam! I do it because my waiver allows me to do it. I say it is in the national interests of the United States because I say it is. How do I know this? Allah told me! Not one person has any right to criticize me because I am Mohammed, oops Barack Hussein Obama. Never forget, criticism of me is apostasy and can result in your being killed!

Robert Gibbs says on NBC's Meet the Press, Osama bin Laden no longer walks on this planet today because of that brave decision [by Obama].

JT: It is only a quirk of fate that it might have been Obama no longer walks on this planet today because of that ... decision [by bin Laden!]. Thank God the USA has Navy Seals. Obama practiced twiddling his thumbs on the day the Navy Seals killed bin Laden.

***

The Washington Times reports that the Obama regime is rigging the jobless numbers in Obama's favor.

JT: Methinks this will soon happen with Barry's golf score. He'll be the first ever to have seven hole in ones, four of them on a par five green!

On CNN's State of the Union, House Speaker John Boehner (R-OH) says, "Listen, [Obama] and I have a very good relationship. And as a result, you know, I try to avoid personal attacks on [him]. But let me say something: [Obama] is getting some very bad advice from his campaign team, because he's diminishing the presidency by picking fake fights, going after straw men every day. ...You know, we had the Buffett Rule. You know, it went on for months. Even [Obama] admitted it was a gimmick. And then we have the Rose Garden ceremony talking about manipulation in the oil markets, without one shred of evidence. And he has an entire administration to go after speculation or manipulation in the oil markets. And then they picked this student loan fight where there is no fight. And the point I've been trying to make here in the last couple of weeks is that [Obama's] bigger than this. The presidency is important. America has big challenges—big fiscal challenges—and we've got big challenges for our economy. And [Obama] ought to be working with Democrats and Republicans on Capitol Hill to address the big issues that affect the American people."

JT: I can't believe what I hear and read! Is John Boehner in the tank for Obama? Is he on Obama's payroll? The run-off of the mouth for Obama is not necessary. All John Boehner had to say was, "You know, we had the Buffett Rule. You know, it went on for months. Even [Obama] admitted it was a gimmick. Then we have the Rose Garden ceremony talking about manipulation in the oil markets, without one shred of evidence. He has an entire administration to go after speculation or manipulation in the oil markets. Then they picked this student loan fight where there is no fight. America has big challenges—big fiscal challenges—and we've got big challenges for our economy. [Obama] (is not) working to address the big issues that affect the American people." The other crap is nothing more than unnecessary and overly political correctness, as if Boehner is crawling into Obama. Delete your "ands" at the beginning of sentences Mr. Boehner! They are childish!

The political analyst Brit Hume says, "...The Supreme Court now enjoys, in the public's imagination, higher ratings than any other branch of government."

JT: Methinks that the estimation of the Supreme Court in the imagination of the American public would go through the roof if they would declare Obama an illegitimate usurper and thus do their duty and uphold their oaths to the Constitution, excluding InJustices Sotomayor and Kagan. They could care less about oaths of office. They are in their positions illegally anyway, having been appointed by an illegal occupier of the Oval Office.

Bill Clinton says, "...Obama deserves to be re-elected. I think he's done a good job. We are moving this country forward, we are going the right direction under ...Obama's leadership."

JT: I believe I hear words from an idiot who cannot distinguish forward from backwards. Clinton is on Obama's payroll!?! Moreover, Clinton and Obama have something in common. Their definition of intelligence is to convince the American public of their dumbness!

Valerie Jarrett didn't want Obama to go after bin Laden because she thought "military action could fail and harm [Obama's] already weakened standing with both the American public and the world. Second, that the attack would be viewed as an act of aggression against Muslims ... ", says the White House Insider via the Ulsterman Report on May 3, 2011.

JT: Who cares? Commanders-in-Chief have military targets and goals. The actions are to achieve these goals and hit the targets. All else can be addressed afterwards. Evidently, Valerie Jarrett and Susan Rice are dumber than I thought.

Obama is disappointed with the Occupy Movement.

JT: Here's why: The Occupy Movement never causes enough damage, regardless of what kind of damage. When things are damaged and/or made non-repairable, it means that people will have work. Therefore, companies who can make repairs and build things anew can hire workers. See! The Occupy Movement is Obama's new shovel-ready jobs program!

JT: That statement contains everything that is wrong with Congresspersons who don't understand the Constitution. In my book it is enough for Senator Coburn to be sequestered. With regard to the question of Obama being a natural born citizen, Senator Coburn has dead brain parts that have isolated themselves from healthy brain portions. He should be replaced with a Republican who knows the Constitution for the United States of America. I'll do his job for half the salary.

***

The Cuban dictator Fidel Castro expresses concern that Obama might consider acting to overthrow the Venezuelan government upon the death of Chavez, and warns, "[A]ny mistake made by Obama could provoke rivers of blood in Venezuela. The Venezuelan blood is also Ecuadorian, Brazilian, Argentinean, Bolivian, Chilean, Uruguayan, Central American, Dominican and Cuban blood. It is necessary to bear in mind this reality when analyzing the political situation in Venezuela."

JT: Fidel Castro forgot to say that Muslim blood is in their veins. After all, Mohammed sent Muslims throughout the world to make the world safe for the Moon-god Alah-Hubal!

At an Arizona fundraiser, Michelle Obama claims, "My family, we lived in a little bitty apartment on the South Side of Chicago over my aunt's house [and] my mom still lives in that house to this day."

JT: I thought her mom lived in the White House with her voodoo doctors! If the house was little bitty, how big or small is little bitty? It must have been torture for big bitty Michelle to move around in little bitty apartment.

Here is a coincidence reported by Don Fredrick of The Obama Timeline: "Michael Cormier, a forensic technician with the Los Angeles County Coroner, dies under suspicious circumstances. KTLA-TV's Elizabeth Espinosa reports, 'We're told detectives are looking into the possibility that he was poisoned by arsenic.' Police Lieutenant Alan Hamilton tells the Los Angeles Times, 'At this point we haven't ruled out foul play. It is one of the things being considered. We are waiting for the coroner's results.' WND.com later reports, 'It's still unclear if Cormier personally worked on the probe into Breitbart's death, and WND has left messages with the coroner's office seeking comment.' (Andrew Breitbart, who was working on 'vetting' Obama, died on March 1, the same day Sheriff Joe Arpaio's 'cold case posse' held a press conference to announce there was probable cause to believe Obama's birth certificate is a forgery. Cormier then dies the same day the Los Angeles County claims Breitbart's death was from natural causes. Some may believe that Breitbart was killed to prevent him from further exposing Obama and to frighten anyone who wanted to follow in the journalist's footsteps, and that Cormier was perhaps killed to prevent him from disputing the final coroner report on Breitbart.")!

JT: Now here's my coincidental question: Dou you think that Obama and/or his goons would have ordered the death of persons who could prove the allegations that Obama is an illegal occupier of the Oval Office? ... Yup! ... You bet they would!

Jose Rodriguez, the former head of the CIA's Clandestine Service tells Lesley Stahl of CBS's Sixty Minutes, that the Obama administration has tied the hands of the intelligence community by killing terrorists with drone attacks, rather than capturing the enemy: "We don't capture anyone anymore Lesley... the default option of this administration has been to kill all prisoners. Take no prisoners. The drones. How could it be more ethical to kill people rather than capture them?"

JT: Methinks there is another aspect that should be considered. Obama is a Muslim. He is only looking after the welfare of Muslims by killing them with drones. This assures the Muslim fighters for Allah-Hubal that they will be killed for fighting for Mohammed and Allah-Hubal. This assures them a place in the Jannah, the Muslim paradise. Obama is o-so-considerate. He's a genie! Of course, the question must be asked: How can it be a paradise when there are only Muslims in Jannah?

On MSNBC, Obama sycophant Chris Matthews comments on Obama's trip to Afghanistan: "Oh, that's great stuff. I was so proud of [Obama] there, I must say. This has nothing to do with partisanship; this is the commander-in-chief meeting with the troops, as uh, ...it was right out of Henry V actually, a touch of Barry, in this case, in the night for those soldiers risking their lives over there. ...Congressman [Jim] Moran, I was so proud of him there because I imagine being a soldier over there [and] this is what you want to hear. The troops are backed up by the people at home and there you have your commander-in-chief there with you personally. It's great stuff."

JT: I think it would be great stuff if Mr. Chris Stuff Matthews went to Afghanistan and convinced the troops why Obama is such a genius and what a wonderful atmosphere it is to be into Obama so far where the sun doesn't shine. He can take the whole MSNBC staff with him and leave them there to fight the Taliban!

At a campaign event in Tucson, Arizona, Michelle Obama says, "See, what you need to know about Barack is that when he meets people, he has got a memory like a steel trap. He might not remember your name, but if he has a few moments and a decent conversation with you, he will never forget your story. It becomes imprinted on his heart."

JT: I know for certain that if Obama ever had a conversation with me, it would not be a conversation. I would bury him with logic, his incompetence, his anti-Americanism, his being anti-Constitution, and immoral, anti-humane conduct throughout his life. He would never forget me and he would remember my name.

***

Michelle also said that America is "blessed to have" her husband.

JT: Satan also has blessings! They are called evil! Michelle and Barry deliver them every day!

***

While in Kabul, Obama signs a strategic partnership agreement with Afghan President Hamid Karzai—an agreement that calls for 10 more years of continuing military support.

JT: This is a variation of the Muslim dhimmi-jazya tax (Look it up!) placed on unbelievers. In this case, the USA is paying for the privilege of being in Afghanistan.

CNSNews.com reports, "Although ...Obama has only served 39 months in office, 69 percent of the U.S. military fatalities in the more than 10-year-old war in Afghanistan have occurred on his watch.

JT: Obama is doing nothing more, or rather his best as a Muslim. Killing as many American soldiers as possible is a Muslim goal.

Sharon Sebastian writes, "The government of the United States is making an historic shift from representing the people to controlling the people. Barack Obama's policies are a blueprint of the United Nation's game plan to place Americans under global governance."

JT: Sharon Sebastian is correct! This is just another indication of how evil Barack Hussein Obama is. http://righttruth.typepad.com/right\_truth/2012/05/collusion-obama-the-un.html. READ EVERYTHING AND THE LINKS!

***

Did Obama have any girlfriends before meeting Michelle LaVaughan Robinson in the summer of 1989?

JT: Probably, highly probably, not! Obama had boyfriends!

Concerning the Chinese blind dissident Chen Guangcheng, who took refuge at the U.S. embassy in Beijing after escaping from house arrest: CNS news reports, "A U.S. official in China told reporters that Chen did not ask for asylum and had decided to stay in China after receiving assurances from Chinese authorities that he would be moved to a safe environment where he could study at a university. China is now demanding an apology from the U.S. for giving Chen refuge.”

JT: It is only right that Obama fly to Beijing and bow to all members of the Chinese government!
