JT: Trevor Loudon says this is the best anti-Obama video. It exposes everything between Obama, Jeremiah Wright, and Islam. Trevor Loudon is correct!

JT: This is why the libtards and anti-American patriots are stupid!

In The Washington Times, Jeffrey T. Kuhner writes, "... Obama has betrayed the American people, the rule of law and the Constitution itself. Obamacare is more unpopular today than when it was first passed. It is the means by which he is centralizing arbitrary power to expand government control over American society.

JT: Are those who supported Obama in 2008/2009 surprised?

The Telegraph reports, "Libya's top politicians have hatched a deal that would see the Muslim Brotherhood lead the government after the country's first free elections in almost five decades takes place on Saturday. While the elections for a 200-member National Congress is unlikely to grant a majority to any one faction, the Muslim Brotherhood and its Islamist allies are confident they can join their counterparts in Tunisia and Egypt at the helm of leadership. Negotiations between the Muslim Brotherhood and a secular-based political movement led by former interim prime minister Mahmoud Jibril have focused on forming a post-election government as soon as the result is known.”

JT: Obama interfered in Libya and Egypt. He did not interfere in Iran? Why? Could it be that he is on their payroll?

Congressman Steve Cohen (D-TN) announces that the Obama administration is giving Planned Parenthood Greater Memphis Region $359,000 in taxpayer funds—despite the action being prohibited by a 2011 state law. Cohen states that Planned Parenthood “has been helping Memphis and Shelby County residents get the health care they need to lead happier, healthier lives for years. These new federal funds will help ensure the Title X Family Planning Program reaches those who need help the most in underserved communities.”

JT: The killers of unborn babies are getting taxpayer funds for killing!

Alaska's KTUU.com reports, "Several electronic road construction signs around Anchorage were hacked late Wednesday night or early Thursday morning, according to the state Department of Transportation. Signs that normally display closure and detour information, like the one on Minnesota Drive near 100th Avenue, were changed to read 'Impeach Obama.' That particular sign wasn't fixed until sometime between 6 a.m. and 8 a.m. Thursday." (<http://talkstraight.tumblr.com/>)

According to

Afghanistan will receive over 16 billion dollars in aid over the next four-plus years. "Since 2002, Afghanistan has received almost 60 billion dollars in civilian aid. More than 90 per cent of Afghanistan's 17-billion-dollar annual budget comes from foreign donations."

JT: The population of Afghanistan is about 27 million. $16,000,000,000 / 27,000,000 = 592,592.593$ dollars per person.

Adding the 60 billion since 2002, results in 2,814.814 per person.

The average yearly income in Afghanistan per person is approximately 425 dollars.

Life expectancy is 40 years.

This life expectancy yields an average yearly income of approximately 70,370 dollars.

A Grand Mosque for Cergy

From Yves Daoudal:

It did not take the new Interior Minister Manuel Valls very long to show his veneration for the State religion. Yesterday (July 6) he inaugurated the grand mosque of Cergy, accompanied by the Socialist mayor and deputy, Dominique Lefebvre, and François Hollande's chief of staff, Sylvie Hubac, for it is "in the name of the president of the Republic" that Manuel Valls officiates.

The mosque is a "brand new building, 2000 square meters, right in the center of the new city, very visible and endowed with a minaret," says Libération, in an article worth citing, since it speaks so frankly about the State religion:

"Dominique Lefebvre, as host, leads the tour. (...) Under the auspices of the municipality the plan to build the grand mosque of Cergy was launched in 2003. (...) As in many cities, the authorities wanted a mosque centrally located rather than several smaller prayer rooms. In order to do this, it was first necessary to federate the ten local associations, each one representing the country of origin. 'I did not give them a choice,' explained Dominique Lefebvre. In exchange, the municipality supported the project, consented to a long-term mortgage on the land, and guaranteed a loan of two million euros, half the budget necessary for the construction of the mosque."

We should reflect on the minister's main comment:

"Islam, in its universal dimension, is an integral part of what France is today."

For more information continue reading at: <http://galliawatch.blogspot.de/>

JT: The French pronunciation of the name Ayrault when transcribed into Arabic refers to penis in several Arabic dialects. Whether or not there is any connection to mini ret, we don't know. Well, well, well! Down goes Le Grand Nation. If Islam can do it in America, why can't it build such monstrosities in France, or in Europe, or at the North Pole, or at the South Pole? Islam has informed JT that the two poles are really minarets erected by Mohammed himself. He was cool! As far as France goes, it is only normal that France becomes Islamic. Gaul was really a pre-Islamic country that spoke a pre-Arabic Arabic. Julius Caesar was a military predecessor of Mohammed. Mohammed had sent Julius Caesar, whose real name is Jul-ibn-ius-Ca-ibn-es-ibn-ar, which means from the pre-Arabic Arabic translation into pre-Arabic Arabic Dialect that was spoken in pre-Arabic Gaul, lamthesonofiusthesonofCathesonofesthesonofar, which is located 1.5 meters distance from the Kaaba in Mecca. The Muslim Armies were never defeated at the Battle of Tours in 732. They were victorious and took on cunningly crafted French disguise. Jean d'Arc was really Mohammed's seventh wife. The Eiffel Tower is really a minaret. The French language is nothing more than a pre-Arabic Arabic dialect. Every inventor, scientist, artist, and, composer, as well as political personality was really a closet Muslim with a French-sounding French name. The French National Hymn is nothing more than a desert tune once hummed by Mohammed! Its original title is Al-Mariseila-Allah-es. This is fact because Omar-bin-Babba, heard it from Umar-bad-Binba, who heard it from Goran al-Simba, who heard it from Lbda-AI-Ombra, who heard it from Uda-al-Umbrella, who heard it from A-is-ha, Mohammed's child bride at the very ripe age of nine years, who had heard Mohammed hum this tune during one fit of lunacy on a desert night after he had seen a black dog, which was really the devil. Allah hop! Allah hop! Allah hop! By the way, the present president of France François Hollande is of Muslim origin. His real name in Arabic is دنالوه سيسنارف and probably (?!?) means I will gain control of France and make it subservient to Islam! That is why they voted Hollande into office.

Jane Pitt, the mother of actor Brad Pitt, writes a letter that is published in Missouri's Springfield News-Leader. It says, "... any Christian should spend much time in prayer before refusing to vote for a family man with high morals, business experience, who is against abortion, and shares Christian conviction concerning homosexuality just because he is a Mormon. Any Christian who does not vote or writes in a name is casting a vote for Romney's opponent, Barack Hussein Obama—a man who sat in Jeremiah Wright's church for years, did not hold a public ceremony to mark the National Day of Prayer, and is a liberal who supports the killing of unborn babies and same-sex marriage."

JT: Mrs. Pitt is correct in her views. Surely they will cause her to receive threatening messages. From whom? From progressives, libtards, Obama obot idiots, and other anti-America creatures.

At the same time the September Democrat National Convention in Charlotte will meet, there will be a three-day gathering of as many as 20,000 Muslims, according to the Winston-Salem Journal

JT: Methinks that there will be no competition. The Muslims are in Charlotte to support their Muslim Barack Hussein Obama. The Democratic Party is in Charlotte to lick up the Muslim propaganda that it is a peaceful dogma. Oops ~~religion~~. No! evil political dogma.

Obama's Secretary of Transportation, Ray LaHood, says in an interview with The Cable "The Chinese are more successful [in building infrastructure] because in their country, only three people make the decision. In our country, 3,000 people do, 3 million. In a country where only three people make the decision, they can decide where to put their rail line, get the money, and do it. We don't do it that way in America. ... We used to be number one. We're not number one anymore. We're number 23. Previous generations have always left something to the next generation. We owe it to the next generation to leave them something. We shortchange the next generation if we don't leave them high-speed rail. That's our obligation."

JT: The United States is now Number 23. Number 23 in what, Mr. Lahood? Going from first place to number 23 in anything in less than four years is going backwards quite fast. That is high speed and the American public gets railed. The Obama thugs have already left something to the next generation, nay, the next two or three generations: debt, a weak America, and an emphasis on change to nothingness! Your head, Mr. LaHood is under a hood!

Don Fredrick of The Obama Timeline reports via ClevelandCBSLocal.com reports that a man named Daniel Potkanowicz introduced Obama at a Cleveland rally. "It is later reported by the local CBS affiliate that Potkanowicz and a business partner in the Youngstown area were ordered to pay $500,000 to Clearview Window & Door after a judge ruled in 2009 that they had violated trade secrets. The Vindicator newspaper in Youngstown reports that the two partners have not paid back the money. Richard Albright, owner of Clearview, says, "I'm wondering who put him up there. He was involved in a scandal, and he's introducing [Obama].")

JT: Mr. Albright! Don't get upset. Obama knows only law-abiding citizens!

Obama outspent opponent Alan Keyes in his 2004 United States Senate campaign by about six-to-one. In 2008 the Obama campaign outspent Senator John McCain's in the 2008 presidential campaign by more than two-to-one.

JT: Obama likes to spend money that is not his! Are you surprised? Obama chose money because money will buy votes. Alan Keyes chose logic and argumentation. He lost. John McCain chose Sarah Palin. Nobody listened to her. Instead she was mobbed by the Obama thugs. McCain – Palin lost. The result: Obama spent almost a billion dollars to put the United States of America 16 trillion dollars in debt! That's a prime example of multiplying one's investment. Change backwards!

From Don Fredrick: "U.S. Deputy Secretary Of State William Burns meets with Egypt's new president, Mohamed Morsi. (Whether Burns told Morsi that Obama will have "more flexibility" in their relationship after November 6 is not known.) Reuters reports that Obama invited Morsi to visit the White House in September. (Whether the visit will be on September 11 is not known.)"

JT: Superb! I couldn't have commented better!

MSNBC.com reports that con artists are using people's faith in Obama to trick them into turning over their Social Security numbers. "The criminals have been marching across the country, making their way from state to state, persuading victims that a special federal government assistance program—sometimes described as a bailout authorized by ...Obama's administration—is available to pay their utility bills. Victims are given bank account and routing numbers to use when paying their bills online, but only after they 'register' by surrendering their Social Security numbers and other personal information. There is no such utility payment assistance program. But electricity users seem to be falling for the ruse everywhere, making it in one of the more successful scams in recent times." In Tampa, Florida utility company TECO Energy, Inc. says 2,000 people fell for the scam, and another 10,000 were tricked in New Jersey.

JT: Could it be that the Obama Thugs are employing these ruses to get money for the Obama campaign and to get the names and addresses and Social Security Numbers for Obama so that he can control Americans much better and also possibly steal another Social Security Number (or Numbers) for Michelle and the children? Receiving one Social Security check is much worse than receiving fifty or sixty! Although fifty or sixty would not even cover Michelle's pocket money for a day! Just asking!

A former CIA agent with the cover name Reza Kahlili who worked in Iran, has told the Los Angeles Times, Iranian soldiers do not fear death, they welcome it. They do not care if they die blowing up a New York subway, Hoover Dam, or the Golden Gate Bridge. Iran is not afraid of a war because it knows the United States does not have the stomach to absorb tens of thousands of casualties. Iran, on the other hand, is willing to sacrifice millions. Iran has terror cells within the United States that "have very detailed information about sensitive sites such as bridges, railroads, airports, military bases, power plants, nuclear sites, water plants, railway stations" that would be sabotaged if Iran is attacked. According to the Times, "Kahlili says Iran has intelligence agents inside American universities, Islamic cultural centers and charitable institutions, posing as academics, policy experts and officers of nonprofits.

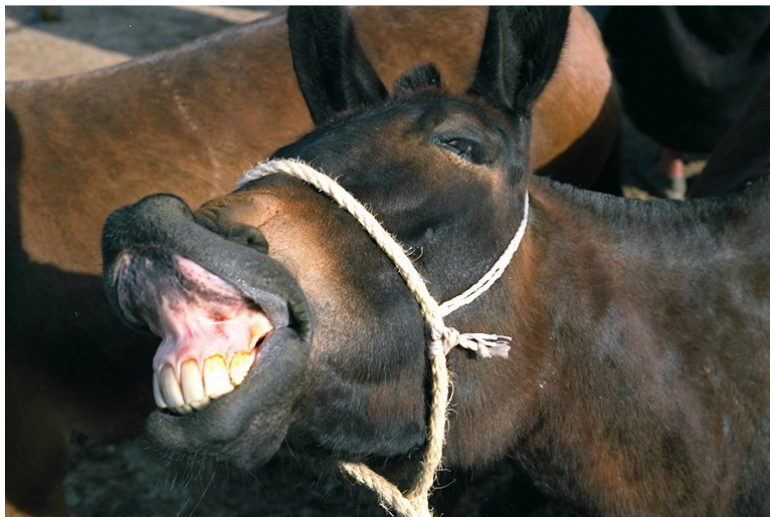

JT: What I have to say on this one will shock some of you. If Iranian soldiers are not afraid of dying, they should be killed by American female soldiers only, even if the remote control of a warhead or a drone is under the control of a female. If they are killed by a bomb, a drone, a bullet, there should be female names for these executors of evil. According to the Koran, that is a sure way to go to hell and not to Jannah. The Mullahs should be the first to go! Find out who belong to these terror cells and execute them for conducting treason against the USA. If a war should occur between the USA and Iran, make sure it takes place in Iran! Declare all illegal Iranians – in fact, all illegals – persona non grata and expel them. America with American patriots is the only way!

In an interview with Manchester, New Hampshire's WMUR, Obama calls for Mitt Romney to release his financial records. "Well, you, you know, uh, I think, what's important if you are running for president is that the American people know who you are, what you've done, and, and that you're an open book. And, uh, you know, that's been true of every presidential candidate, uh, dating all the way back to Mitt Romney's father. ...Obviously there are unpleasant aspects of being poked and probed, and I understand that. But it's important for you to say here's who I am, and here's how I've done."

JT: I'm rolling the floor!

This is long, but read it anyway: While Obama continues to claim that the wealthiest Americans do not pay “their fair share” of taxes, the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) releases information that proves him wrong. At WashingtonTimes.com Stephan Dinan reports, “Wealthy Americans earn about 50 percent of all income but pay nearly 70 percent of the federal tax burden, according to the latest analysis Tuesday by the Congressional Budget Office... CBO looked at 2007 through 2009—the latest year’s data are available, but enough to include the early effects of the last recession—and found the bottom 20 percent of American earners paid just three-tenths of a percent of the total federal tax burden, while the richest 20 percent paid 67.9 percent of taxes. The top 1 percent, whom ...Obama has made a target during the presidential campaign, earned 13.4 percent of all pre-tax income but paid 22.3 percent of taxes in 2009, CBO said. When tax burden is figured in, the top 1 percent took in only 11.5 percent of income. According to the CBO, “Specifically, between 2007 and 2009, the share of taxes paid fell for the bottom three income quintiles, was close to flat for the fourth quintile, but rose for the highest quintile. Within the top quintile, however, the shift was uneven; the share paid by the top percentile fell, and the share paid by the rest of the top quintile rose.” Additionally, between 2007 and 2009 the top one percent saw their average earnings plummet from $1.9 million to $1.2 million. More importantly, the bottom 40 percent, on average, not only pay no income taxes they receive money from the IRS because of refundable tax credits.

JT: Yup! The rich should pay more taxes. Obama is such a genius!

In Miami, Florida Michelle Obama tells an audience her husband “needs you to keep making those calls, doing that hard work. Knocking on those doors. Treacherous work, right? Tiring work. He needs you to keep registering those voters. You know, the ones, you know, that aren’t registered and you gotta get ’em and shake ’em. Find them, get them registered.”

JT: Translation: Re-elect Barry so that I can still have all my expenses paid by the American taxpayer!

What is a Harry Reid?

JT: The answer is at <http://www.urbandictionary.com/define.php?term=harry+reid>.

That's clarity!

According to several reports in the Arabic media, prominent Muslim clerics have begun to call for the demolition of Egypt’s Great Pyramids—or, in the words of Saudi Sheikh Ali bin Said al-Rabi'i, those "symbols of paganism," which Egypt's Salafi party has long planned to cover with wax. Most recently, Bahrain's "Sheikh of Sunni Sheikhs" and President of National Unity, Abd al-Latif al-Mahmoud, called on Egypt's new president, Muhammad Morsi, to "destroy the Pyramids and accomplish what the Sahabi Amr bin al-As could not."

This is a reference to the Muslim Prophet Muhammad's companion, Amr bin al-As and his Arabian tribesmen, who invaded and conquered Egypt circa 641. Under al-As and subsequent Muslim rule, many Egyptian antiquities were destroyed as relics of infidelity. While most Western academics argue otherwise, according to early Muslim writers, the great Library of Alexandria itself—deemed a repository of pagan knowledge contradicting the Koran—was destroyed under bin al-As's reign and in compliance with Caliph Omar's command.

However, while book-burning was an easy activity in the 7th century, destroying the mountain-like pyramids and their guardian Sphinx was not—even if Egypt's Medieval Mamluk rulers "de-nosed" the latter during target practice (though popular legend still attributes it to a Westerner, Napoleon).

Now, however, as Bahrain's "Sheikh of Sheikhs" observes, and thanks to modern technology, the pyramids can be destroyed. The only question left is whether the Muslim Brotherhood president of Egypt is "pious" enough—if he is willing to complete the Islamization process that started under the hands of Egypt's first Islamic conqueror.

JT: Devout Muslims are so respectful, so peaceful, so tolerant, so pure, so perfect, so full of crap!

JT: Have you heard? Obama is asking for money! He'll take anything worth value, any amount he can get from anyone from anywhere.

305th and 306th Expeditionary Airlift Squadrons To Support Obama Campaign? There is an email going around that says "the United States Air Force has established two new aircraft squadrons to support President Obama's travel needs during the campaign season".

JT: Rumor has it that they will transport Michelle and her overnight baggage!

Obama will turn 50 on August 4.

JT: Well, he says August 4. But what does turn 50 mean? Possible answers:

- turn 50 body servants into Jannah virgins
- turn 50 cigarettes by hand
- turn 50 forged birth certificates into real, official documents
- turn 50 XXXI hamburgers on the White House grill for hungry Michelle
- turn a par 72 into a par 50 for 18 holes when no one is looking or keeping score.
- turn the 16 trillion national deficit into 50 trillion.

The reader can make her/his own. Because they have something to do with Obama, none of them will be true, but they will surely be descriptive.

WashingtonPost.com reports, "A [Washington] D.C. police officer who worked as a motorcycle escort for White House officials and other dignitaries was moved to administrative duty Wednesday after he allegedly was overheard making threatening comments toward Michelle Obama, according to several police officials."

JT: What could he have said that was a threatening comment. JT has the inside answers. Three things were said:

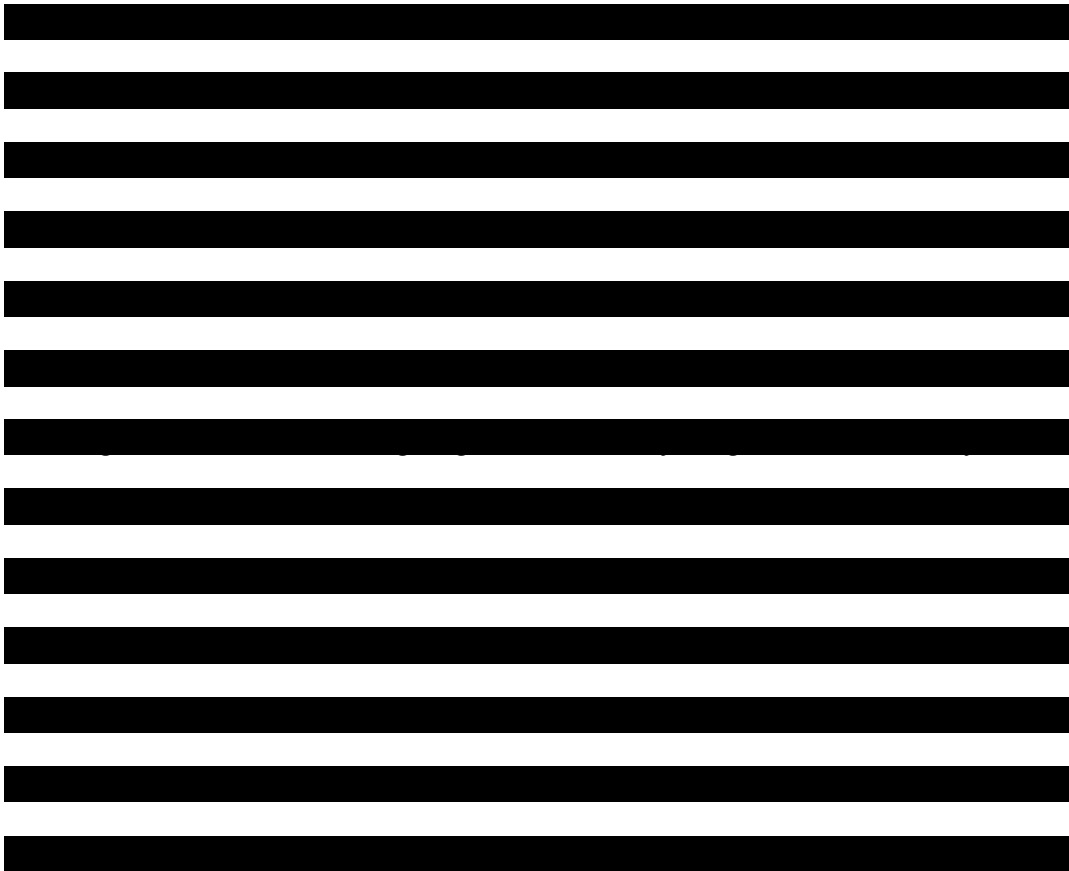

1. Michelle Obama wears a mask so that everyone thinks that she is beautiful, but in reality the mask is uglier than ugly.
2. Michelle Obama is addicted to Kool-Aid and XXXL hamburgers and Barack told her that he would have to ration them.
3. After the November elections Michelle Obama will have to pay for everything she does herself. The American taxpayers will no longer be paying her bills

Evidently number three was the threat of threats.

A reporter asks White House press secretary Jay Carney, "Jay, can [Obama] do more to show leadership on being transparent with regard to documents, records, his own background ... ?"

JT: It was exceedingly difficult to locate, yet, JT found some examples of Barack Hussein Obama's 100 percent transparency concerning his documents, records of his own background, etc. The document is long but the first page is an indication of the completeness of Obama's transparency. Here it is:
