JUST THINKING

Number 68

At <http://www.zerohedge.com/news/2013-08-21/33-shocking-facts-which-show-how-badly-economy-has-tanked-under-obama>. The following are 33 shocking facts which show how badly the U.S. economy has tanked since Obama became president...

#1 When Barack Obama entered the White House, 60.6 percent of working age Americans had a job. Today, only 58.7 percent of working age Americans have a job.

#2 Since Obama has been president, seven out of every eight jobs that have been "created" in the U.S. economy have been part-time jobs.

#3 The number of full-time workers in the United States is still nearly 6 million below the old record that was set back in 2007.

#4 It is hard to believe, but an astounding 53 percent of all American workers now make less than $30,000 a year.

#5 40 percent of all workers in the United States actually make less than what a full-time minimum wage worker made back in 1968.

#6 When the Obama era began, the average duration of unemployment in this country was 19.8 weeks. Today, it is 36.6 weeks.

#7 During the first four years of Obama, the number of Americans "not in the labor force" soared by an astounding 8,332,000. That far exceeds any previous four year total.

#8 According to the U.S. Census Bureau, the middle class is taking home a smaller share of the overall income pie than has ever been recorded before.

#9 When Obama was elected, the homeownership rate in the United States was 67.5 percent. Today, it is 65.0 percent. That is the lowest that it has been in 18 years.

#10 When Obama entered the White House, the mortgage delinquency rate was 7.85 percent. Today, it is 9.72 percent.

#11 In 2008, the U.S. trade deficit with China was 268 billion dollars. Last year, it was 315 billion dollars.

#12 When Obama first became president, 12.5 million Americans had manufacturing jobs. Today, only 11.9 million Americans have manufacturing jobs.

#13 Median household income in America has fallen for four consecutive years. Overall, it has declined by over $4000 during that time span.

#14 The poverty rate has shot up to 16.1 percent. That is actually higher than when the War on Poverty began in 1965.

#15 During Obama's first term, the number of Americans on food stamps increased by an average of about 11,000 per day.

#16 When Barack Obama entered the White House, there were about 32 million Americans on food stamps. Today, there are more than 47 million Americans on food stamps.

#17 At this point, more than a million public school students in the United States are homeless. This is the first time that has ever happened in our history. That number has risen by 57 percent since the 2006-2007 school year.

#18 When Barack Obama took office, the average price of a gallon of regular gasoline was $1.85. Today, it is \$3.53.

#19 Electricity bills in the United States have risen faster than the overall rate of inflation for five years in a row.

#20 Health insurance costs have risen by 29 percent since Barack Obama became president, and Obamacare is going to make things far worse.

#21 The United States has fallen in the global economic competitiveness rankings compiled by the World Economic Forum for four years in a row.

#22 According to economist Tim Kane, the following is how the number of startup jobs per 1000 Americans breaks down by presidential administration...

Bush Sr.: 11.3

Clinton: 11.2

Bush Jr.: 10.8

Obama: 7.8

#23 In 2008, that total amount of student loan debt in this country was 440 billion dollars. At this point, it has shot up to about a trillion dollars.

#24 According to one recent survey, 76 percent of all Americans are living paycheck to paycheck.

#25 During Obama's first term, the number of Americans collecting federal disability insurance rose by more than 18 percent.

#26 The total amount of money that the federal government gives directly to the American people has grown by 32 percent since Barack Obama became president.

#27 According to the Survey of Income and Program Participation conducted by the U.S. Census, well over 100 million Americans are enrolled in at least one welfare program run by the federal government.

#28 As I wrote about the other day, American households are now receiving more money directly from the federal government than they are paying to the government in taxes.

#29 Under Barack Obama, the velocity of money (a very important indicator of economic health) has plunged to a post-World War II low.

#30 At the end of 2008, the Federal Reserve held $475.9 billion worth of U.S. Treasury bonds. Today, Fed holdings of U.S. Treasury bonds have skyrocketed past the 2 trillion dollar mark.

#31 When Barack Obama was first elected, the U.S. debt to GDP ratio was under 70 percent. Today, it is up to 101 percent.

#32 During Obama's first term, the federal government accumulated more new debt than it did under the first 42 U.S presidents combined.

#33 When you break it down, the amount of new debt accumulated by the U.S. government during Obama's first term comes to approximately \$50,521 for every single household in the United States. Are you able to pay your share?

JT: I'm not able to pay this share and I wouldn't help Obama out if I could because I'm patriotic and I don't give assistance to traitors and America haters. I'm not shocked. I'm not even surprised. I knew it would happen in 2008 when he was running for office.

<http://www.foxnews.com/politics/2013/08/22/newly-confirmed-un-ambassador-absent-from-syria-emergency-meeting/> reports the United Nations Security Council meets to discuss the use of chemical weapons in Syria. Obama's just-appointed U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, Samantha Power, the newly-appointed US ambassador to the United Nations is absent. Before becoming an absent UN ambassador, Samantha Power had insisted that the Security Council had to do something about the atrocities in Syria. She called the Security Council's failure to act a "disgrace that history will judge harshly." (

JT: Where was Samantha Power on this night at this crucial meeting, the purpose of which was to discuss innocent murders in Syria? Was she playing spades? Was she doing a Hillary Clinton and enjoying an evening with her lesbian partner? Was she high on drugs and forgot that her newly-acquired position has responsibilities. The same will happen to her as to those who are responsible for the Benghazi scandal: Nothing! PS: Fox News reports she was on a personal trip to Ireland: \(http://www.foxnews.com/politics/2013/08/23/found-samantha-power-in-ireland-during-urgent-syria-meeting-sources-say/\) As far as I'm concerned only a death in the family could excuse her. Evidently she doesn't realize she's a public servant.

Kris Zane at <http://www.westernjournalism.com/obama-bankrolled-attack-on-the-benghazi-consulate/> reports, "According to Arabic News Channel TV14 and reported on by Egypt Daily News, Obama sent an eight billion dollar secret bribe to the Muslim Brotherhood to guarantee that the Egyptian Sinai Peninsula be turned over to the terrorist group Hamas. Hamas, a Muslim Brotherhood sister group, works directly with Ansar al-Sharia in the Sinai Peninsula. Channel TV14 goes on to say that the agreement was signed by Mohammed Mursi and the Muslim Brotherhood's second in command, Khairat Al-Shater, now under house arrest in Egypt, who says he has documents that will put Obama in prison! But it gets worse: the eight billion dollars that Obama sent to the Muslim Brotherhood was shared with Ansar al-Sharia, the group that attacked our consulate and CIA Annex in Benghazi on September 11, 2012. If all of this proves to be true, Barack Hussein Obama funded the attack on the Benghazi consulate and CIA Annex. Barack Hussein Obama funded the assassination of U.S. ambassador Christopher Stevens and three other Americans. Barack Hussein Obama is therefore an accessory to murder, not to mention a traitor!"

JT: I'm not surprised! It's the Chicago-Obama method. Nothing will happen to him because there are enough Chicago-Obama behind-lickers to cover up for him. It may even turn out that the United States Treasury or the Federal Reserve was behind the scheme because that is where dollars come from. Not Obama! Never! Obama had no idea of what was happening. He was either playing cards or golfing!

According to KXLY.com, "the indicted are Demetrius Glenn and Kenan Adams-Kinard, African Americans between 16 and 19 years old."

JT: This is what happens to American Patriots under Obama. The two African Americans were just having fun because they were bored. The number of sons Obama has grows every day. JT: Let's pray that he is wrong about Hillary Clinton even though he's right about everything else!

JT: concerning the use of gift gas in Syria. Don Fredrick has commented on this and I think his comments are an exact portrayal of the Obama idiocy.

On August 21 various news agencies report the Syrian government's use of chemical weapons against civilians. Exactly one year earlier, on August 21, 2012, Obama told reporters, "We have been very clear to the Assad regime, but also to other players on the ground, that a red line for us is we start seeing a whole bunch of chemical weapons moving around or being utilized. That would change my calculus. That would change my equation."

<http://hotair.com/archives/2013/08/21/syrian-rebels-claim-assad-used-chemical-weapons-over-100-dead/>
<http://www.guardian.co.uk/world/middle-east-live/2012/aug/21/syria-crisis-weapons-obama-live?commentpage=all#block-50333b8ab579b8532ead41ed>

Here is Don Fredrick's logical comment: "Whether Obama will do nothing and claim that the chemical attack did not meet his "bunch of" threshold is not known. It is worth noting that if the Syrian government did use chemical weapons, it is possible that they were obtained from Iraq 10 years earlier. In the weeks leading up to the invasion of Iraq in 2003, Saddam Hussein allegedly had truckloads of chemical weapons transported to Syria for safekeeping—and to ensure that he would not be caught with the 'weapons of mass destruction' that George W. Bush's opponents claimed did not exist. A 'special response' to the use of nerve gas is, some might argue, absurd. More than 100,000 people have reportedly been killed in the Syrian conflict, and to argue that killing one thousand with nerve gas 'crosses a red line' means the other 99,000 deaths are somehow irrelevant or sanctioned. The 'red line' concept is like the Geneva Convention's prohibition of three-edged saber blades because they cause more traumatic injuries than two-edged blades. If two enemies can agree on how to kill each other, then one would think they could agree not to kill each other. In reality, Obama's 'red line' statement in 2012 was his excuse not to get involved in Syria. But his bluff was called, and now he looks like a fool."

Senator Tom Coburn (R-OK) says "Barack Obama is a personal friend of mine. He became my friend [when he served] in the Senate. But that does not mean I agree in any way with what he's doing or how he's doing it."

At <http://shoebat.com/2013/08/23/evidence-u-s-bribed-egypts-muslim-brotherhood/> we read that there is evidence ~~the United States~~ Barack Hussein Obama bribed former Egyptian President Mursi and the Muslim Brotherhood. I quote the full report because it is so important:

" Boom! Evidence U.S. Bribed Egypt's Muslim Brotherhood?

By Shoebat Foundation on August 23, 2013 in Blog, General

By Walid Shoebat

Egypt's Attorney General Hisham Barakat is looking into evidence that arrested Muslim Brotherhood leaders accepted bribes from the U.S. Embassy in Cairo, according to a report from Almesryoon, an Egyptian newspaper that cites a "judicial source".

The trials that are scheduled to begin in Cairo on August 25th will feature a litany of charges against the Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood. Included among them are murders, assassinations, prison escapes, sniping, indiscriminate killing of demonstrators, and collaborating with foreign governments, to include both the United States and Qatar.

Evidence we have obtained lends credibility to the charges of "gifts" (bribes) being taken in U.S. dollars from the U.S. Embassy in Cairo" that were distributed to top ministerial level officials in the Mursi government.

Via Almesryoon:

"A judicial source stated that over the past few days, a number of complaints have been filed with the Attorney General Hisham Barakat. These complaints accuse the leaders of the Muslim Brotherhood and leaders of the centrist party of receiving gifts from the American embassy in Cairo. The sponsors of these complaints stated that among these leaders are Mohamed Badie, General Guide of the Muslim Brotherhood, Khairat Al-Shater, deputy leader and businessman, Mohamed Beltagy leading the group, Essam el-Erian, deputy head of the Freedom and Justice Party of, and Abu Ela Mady, head of the Wasat Party, Essam Sultan, deputy head of the Wasat Party."

The strength of these allegations is seemingly bolstered by another case alluded to by the newspaper in which a document is referenced. This document reportedly reveals monthly "gifts" being paid to Muslim Brotherhood leaders in Egypt by the Prime Minister Hamad bin Jassim bin Jabor Al Thani, Minister of Foreign Affairs to the Mursi government. These monthly payments were said to be denominated in U.S. dollars to each leader.

Evidence for such allegations are substantiated by a document we have obtained. It includes the names of several recipients of funds and even includes their signatures acknowledging receipt of the funds.

This ledger, obtained from inside the Mursi government, lends additional credibility to the report published – in Arabic – by Almesryoon, which claims that U.S. bribes were paid to the Muslim Brotherhood.

Qatar Document indicates Bribes in U.S. Dollars

The names listed on the Qatar document match several names mentioned in the Almesryoon article, including Mohamed Beltagy, listed as the last name in the Qatari document as being paid an annual “gift”/bribe of $850,000 annually in U.S. dollars.

The document above lists “gifts” which amount to bribes being paid to the Mursi government members in annual payments of between $750,000 and $850,000 in U.S. dollars each. The sums amount to tens of millions of dollars in bribes. The nature or purpose for these payments is unknown but is definitely marked as “gifts”.

Here is a direct translation from the newspaper:

“A judicial source stated that the Attorney General Hisham Barakat received a number of filed complaints over the past few days. These complaints accuse leaders of the Muslim Brotherhood and leaders of the centrist party of receiving bribes thinly disguised as ‘gifts’, paid through the U.S. Embassy in Cairo.”

Almesryoon reports that both the U.S. and Qatar paid bribes to Egypt’s Muslim Brotherhood leaders. The document above serves as very strong evidence that Qatar did in fact do just that.

The signatures seen in Figure 1 means the document will be used as evidence in the upcoming trials set to begin on the 25th.
