JT: Another son of Obama is a failure!

***

You're never more important than you are at times like these, and here's why.

When Barack is in a tough negotiation with Republicans in Congress, he needs to know that his supporters are with him -- that you're ready to do whatever it takes.

So here's the thing: if you chip in to support Democrats before the critical fundraising deadline on Monday, you won't just be building an organization that can help elect Democrats who are going to support Barack. You're showing Barack that you're in his corner -- that you've got his back.

And right now, with all that's happening, that really matters.
Chip in $3 or more to support Barack and his Democratic allies:

<https://my.democrats.org/Deadline>

Thanks,
Michelle

P.S. -- So much is at stake right now. Please chip in before Monday at midnight.

JT: I received this email from Moosechelle asking for 3 dollars for Barry on Saturday September 28, 2013. I was supposed to chip in before midnight, Monday, September 30, 2013.

Guess what I did! ... Nothing!!!

You are probably asking how it comes that I received an email from Moosechelle. Well, I've been on the Democratic Party mailing list since 2007. Since 2007 they have constantly asked me for money!

I'm also on the Republican Party mailing list since 2007. They have never asked me for money.

Why am I on the mailings lists of both political parties? Being politically active, I have to know what's going on.

My resume at this point is that the Democratic Party always needs money because they don't have any idea of how to economize. The Republican Party probably needs money now and then, but ... they realize how economics functions.

At <http://dcclothesline.com/2013/09/28/20-obama-quotes-about-islam-contrasted-with-20-obama-quotes-about-christianity/> we read the following article by Michael Snyder.

You are about to read some of the most shocking quotes that Barack Obama has ever uttered in public. A few of these have been widely circulated, but most of them are very obscure. Even though he claims to be a Christian, throughout his political career Obama has repeatedly attacked traditional Biblical Christianity and he has a very long history of anti-Christian actions. In public speeches he has repeatedly cast doubt on the Bible, he has repeatedly stated that he does not believe that Jesus is necessary for salvation, and he has consistently said that he believes that all "people of faith" believe in the same God. At the same time, Obama has always referred to Muhammed as "the Prophet", he has always expressed great love and respect for Islam, and he has even removed all references to Islam from terror training materials used by federal government agencies. So what in the world does "the leader of the free world" actually believe? Read the quotes below and decide for yourself...

20 Quotes By Barack Obama About Islam

#1 "The future must not belong to those who slander the Prophet of Islam"

#2 "The sweetest sound I know is the Muslim call to prayer"

#3 "We will convey our deep appreciation for the Islamic faith, which has done so much over the centuries to shape the world — including in my own country."

#4 "As a student of history, I also know civilization's debt to Islam."

#5 “Islam has a proud tradition of tolerance.”

#6 “Islam has always been part of America”

#7 “we will encourage more Americans to study in Muslim communities”

#8 “These rituals remind us of the principles that we hold in common, and Islam’s role in advancing justice, progress, tolerance, and the dignity of all human beings.”

#9 “America and Islam are not exclusive and need not be in competition. Instead, they overlap, and share common principles of justice and progress, tolerance and the dignity of all human beings.”

#10 “I made clear that America is not – and never will be – at war with Islam.”

#11 “Islam is not part of the problem in combating violent extremism – it is an important part of promoting peace.”

#12 “So I have known Islam on three continents before coming to the region where it was first revealed”

#13 “In ancient times and in our times, Muslim communities have been at the forefront of innovation and education.”

#14 “throughout history, Islam has demonstrated through words and deeds the possibilities of religious tolerance and racial equality.”

#15 “Ramadan is a celebration of a faith known for great diversity and racial equality”.

#16 “The Holy Koran tells us, ‘O mankind! We have created you male and a female; and we have made you into nations and tribes so that you may know one another.’”

#17 “I look forward to hosting an Iftar dinner celebrating Ramadan here at the White House later this week, and wish you a blessed month.”

#18 “We’ve seen those results in generations of Muslim immigrants – farmers and factory workers, helping to lay the railroads and build our cities, the Muslim innovators who helped build some of our highest skyscrapers and who helped unlock the secrets of our universe.”

#19 “That experience guides my conviction that partnership between America and Islam must be based on what Islam is, not what it isn’t. And I consider it part of my responsibility as president of the United States to fight against negative stereotypes of Islam wherever they appear.”

#20 “I also know that Islam has always been a part of America’s story.”

20 Quotes By Barack Obama About Christianity

#1 “Whatever we once were, we are no longer a Christian nation”

#2 “We do not consider ourselves a Christian nation.”

#3 “Which passages of scripture should guide our public policy? Should we go with Leviticus, which suggests slavery is OK and that eating shellfish is an abomination? Or we could go with Deuteronomy, which suggests stoning your child if he strays from the faith?”

#4 “Even those who claim the Bible’s inerrancy make distinctions between Scriptural edicts, sensing that some passages – the Ten Commandments, say, or a belief in Christ’s divinity – are central to Christian faith, while others are more culturally specific and may be modified to accommodate modern life.”

#5 “The American people intuitively understand this, which is why the majority of Catholics practice birth control and some of those opposed to gay marriage nevertheless are opposed to a Constitutional amendment to ban it. Religious leadership need not accept such wisdom in counseling their flocks, but they should recognize this wisdom in their politics.”

#6 From Obama’s book, The Audacity of Hope: “I am not willing to have the state deny American citizens a civil union that confers equivalent rights on such basic matters as hospital visitation or health insurance coverage simply because the people they love are of the same sex—nor am I willing to accept a reading of the Bible that considers an obscure line in Romans to be more defining of Christianity than the Sermon on the Mount.”

#7 Obama’s response when asked what his definition of sin is: “Being out of alignment with my values.”

#8 “If all it took was someone proclaiming I believe Jesus Christ and that he died for my sins, and that was all there was to it, people wouldn’t have to keep coming to church, would they.”

#9 “This is something that I’m sure I’d have serious debates with my fellow Christians about. I think that the difficult thing about any religion, including Christianity, is that at some level there is a call to evangelize and proselytize. There’s the belief, certainly in some quarters, that people haven’t embraced Jesus Christ as their personal savior that they’re going to hell.”

#10 “I find it hard to believe that my God would consign four-fifths of the world to hell. I can’t imagine that my God would allow some little Hindu kid in India who never interacts with the Christian faith to somehow burn for all eternity. That’s just not part of my religious makeup.”

#11 “I don’t presume to have knowledge of what happens after I die. But I feel very strongly that whether the reward is in the here and now or in the hereafter, the aligning myself to my faith and my values is a good thing.”

#12 “I’ve said this before, and I know this raises questions in the minds of some evangelicals. I do not believe that my mother, who never formally embraced Christianity as far as I know ... I do not believe she went to hell.”

#13 “Those opposed to abortion cannot simply invoke God’s will—they have to explain why abortion violates some principle that is accessible to people of all faiths.”

#14 On his support for civil unions for gay couples: “If people find that controversial then I would just refer them to the Sermon on the Mount.”

#15 “You got into these small towns in Pennsylvania and, like a lot of small towns in the Midwest, the jobs have been gone now for 25 years and nothing’s replaced them. And they fell through the Clinton Administration, and the Bush Administration, and each successive administration has said that somehow these communities are gonna regenerate and they have not. And it’s not surprising then they get bitter, they cling to guns or religion or antipathy to people who aren’t like them or anti-immigrant sentiment or anti-trade sentiment as a way to explain their frustrations.”

#16 “In our household, the Bible, the Koran and the Bhagavad Gita sat on the shelf alongside books of Greek and Norse and African mythology”

#17 “On Easter or Christmas Day, my mother might drag me to church, just as she dragged me to the Buddhist temple, the Chinese New Year celebration, the Shinto shrine, and ancient Hawaiian burial sites.”

#18 “we have Jews, Muslims, Hindus, atheists, agnostics, Buddhists, and their own path to grace is one that we have to revere and respect as much as our own”

#19 “All of us have a responsibility to work for the day when the mothers of Israelis and Palestinians can see their children grow up without fear; when the Holy Land of the three great faiths is the place of peace that God intended it to be; when Jerusalem is a secure and lasting home for Jews and Christians and Muslims, and a place for all of the children of Abraham to mingle peacefully together as in the story of Isra — (applause) — as in the story of Isra, when Moses, Jesus, and Mohammed, peace be upon them, joined in prayer. (Applause.)”

#20 “I believe that there are many paths to the same place, and that is a belief that there is a higher power, a belief that we are connected as a people.”

Obama says to Israeli Prime minister Binyamin Netanyahu: says, "The Iranians, it appears, are now prepared to negotiate." Don Fredrick of The Obama Timeline opinions, "Netanyahu knows better than to trust Iran, and warns that no one should be fooled by President Hassan Rouhani's seemingly charming overtures. Furthermore, says Don Fredrick, "PJMedia.com's Michael Ledeen reports, 'Even before Rouhani deigned to take Obama's call, we had given the Islamic Republic an ancient treasure, a cup crafted two millenia before Mohammed, said to be worth at least a million dollars. Remember that Obama gave the Brits a collection of his favorite speeches.'"")

JT: Ja, but Barry and Michelle drank out of the cup over three thousand years ago! From The Obama Timeline: “[Samantha Lewthwaite], A convert to Islam, the fugitive widow of one of the [July 7, 2005] bus bombers in London, led the attack on infidel civilians at the upscale Westgate mall and was shouting orders in Arabic to the mujahadeen as they were gunning people down. Women and children were slaughtered if they could not recite the Koran or name the mother of the Prophet Mohammed. ‘Our mujahideen are prepared to die for our cause!’” (Pamela Geller asks, “So why didn’t even one Muslim scream out Muhammad’s mother’s name and give the answer to those being executed?”) The jihadists “cut the hands off the bodies of their victims and burned their faces.” Among the victims are a nephew of Kenyan President Uhuru Kenyatta and the nephew’s fiancé, a Canadian diplomat, a poet from Ghana, and citizens of Great Britain, Australia, and China. (Pamela Geller comments, “I pray these were not Obama provided weapons such as we have seen in Benghazi, Algeria, Egypt and Syria. Less we not forget, Obama supported and bankrolled a sharia constitution in Kenya in 2010.”) Haaretz.com writes, “Israeli forces reportedly join effort to end deadly siege at Kenya mall, though not clear in what capacity.” (It is later reported that Lewthwaite escaped the mall by smearing blood on her face and pretending to be a fleeing victim. Other terrorists reportedly escaped the mall via its sewage system.)

JT: Those who escaped via the sewer escaped where they belong.

Obama-backed rebels in Ma'loula, Syria destroy the 4th-century Christian Church of Holy Martyrs and Bacchus. According to Pravoslavie.ru, “A unique icon of Sts. Sergius and Bacchus painted in the 13th century, which was situated just at the entrance, has been lost forever. The iconostasis and its central icon, painted in the 13th century, have been destroyed together with the icons of the Mother of God and Christ ‘the Archpastor.’ The latter always evoked the surprise of researchers because it depicted Christ in a long robe of silk with golden threads which is more typical to Damascus of the 18th century than to the period of the beginnings of Christianity. There is no altar of Sts. Sergius and Bacchus any more. It was semicircular with a low edge—the legacy of pagan altars. Now only debris remains of it. ...The main cross fell from the dome, wall paintings were destroyed, shot down and slashed by debris, while the walls themselves were either destroyed or disfigured by holes of shells. At the same time, the militants are continuing to shoot down the remaining church walls with mortar.”

From The October Issue of The Obama Timeline: "On October 2 the White House announces the cancellation of two stops on Obama’s planned visit to Asia. He will travel to Indonesia and Brunei, but not Malaysia and the Philippines. (It is worth noting that Indonesia and Brunei are Muslim nations; Malaysia is somewhat less so; Philippine citizens are primarily Roman Catholics.)"

JT: Isn't there some law that says when an undesired person is out of country they cannot be allowed back in to the country. Declare him persona non grata and get rid of him!!!

NEWS FLASH!!! NEWS FLASH!!! NEWS FLASH!!! NEWS FLASH!!!

The White House announces the cancellation of Obama’s trip to Asia. Press secretary Jay Carney tells reporters that Obama “made this decision based on the difficulty in moving forward with foreign travel in the face of a shutdown, and his determination to continue pressing his case that Republicans should immediately allow a vote to reopen the government.” (Don Fredrick comments: "One might argue that, inasmuch as Obama refuses to negotiate over government spending, he serves no purpose in Washington and may as well visit the Muslim nations of Indonesia and Brunei—or play golf.") (<http://www.foxnews.com/politics/2013/10/03/obama-cancels-trip-to-asia-over-budget-impasse/>)

About my terrorists

Everything you want to know about my terrorists but are afraid to ask! I'm glad that you are taking a moment to learn more about my fun loving menagerie of merry mischief makers! If you're thinking that they are stereotypes, you're right! Give yourself 5 points! But just what are they stereotypical of? Well, I'll tell you – they are the stereotypical Arab terrorists – they are not stereotypical Arabs. They are the stereotypical Arab terrorists – they are not stereotypical Muslims. They are the stereotypical Arab terrorists – they are not stereotypical Islamists.

About the names I've named them. The names are, to the best of my knowledge, real Arabic names, least ways according to the web site I got them from. Whether I've put them together correctly or not is something that I do not know, and, what's more, it is something that I don't even care about. They are what they are because of the humor I found in constructing them in the way I constructed them.

Salih Raghid: Salih is more or less the leader of this terrorist cell.

Ma'd Ma'n: Ma'd is second in command and is regarded as Salih's lieutenant.

Kamal Muneer: Kamal is just as his name implies. He spends little to no time on personal hygiene and he smells very bad. Kamal wears his smell with confidence – he is confident that his leader, Salih Raghid, will never recruit him to be a homicide bomber because he smells so bad that he can't get within shrapnel distance of innocent people.

Rasa Mutazz: Rasa is gay, a girly man, swishy. His wardrobe is flamboyant and he enjoys his punk-colored body hair. He's very afraid that someday he will end up dancing on the end of an Iranian rope. Sometimes Rasa, like Arsal Fakhr, thinks that maybe he should be fighting on the side of the Great Satan who is more tolerant of his sexual bewilderment.

Arsal Fakhr: Arsal is a cross-dresser and a Clairol blonde. He and Rasa are more than just fellow terrorists – much more – and for the very reasons suggested by Arsal's name. Arsal, like Rasa, fears the Iranian rope. Sometimes Arsal, like Rasa Mutazz, thinks that maybe he should be fighting on the side of the Great Satan who is more tolerant of his sexual bewilderment.

Amin Rihab: Amin is a bit of a wishy washy terrorist. Somedays he likes terrorizing and killing innocent people, and somedays he doesn't. He's tried changing his extremist ways with the 12-step program developed by Mohammed Shaikh, but his 'recovery' keeps getting derailed by step 3 — like Amin Rihab says, "Doing step 3 is what convinced me to be a terrorist in the first place!" What's a terrorist to do?

At AmericanThinker.com Matthew May declares, "I will not comply [with ObamaCare] because I am a free citizen of the United States, not a subject of its government. I consider non-compliance with this monstrosity and the tens of thousands of pages of regulations that are to be enforced by an unelected bureaucracy, and that have left a gigantic carbon footprint on our environment and the United States Constitution, a duty. Non-compliance is my executive order, and that order reads in part that I do not recognize any government's claim on my action or inaction in the marketplace, nor upon any personal information I am unwilling to divulge. I will not submit to a cabal who read George Orwell's 1984 not as a terrifying warning, but as an instruction manual. ...If (when) the IRS or HHS or any other such entity attempts to extort a tax or fee of any kind for not participating in mandated commerce, they will be met with resistance. I will not pay any such tax or fee. Refusing to comply with the dictates of an illegitimate law that is selectively enforced, and from which the privileged few are exempted, is not, in the annals of American history, brave or difficult. Those who refuse to comply are not barefoot in the snows of Valley Forge, crying out in agony at Gettysburg, or rushing the cockpit of Flight 93. While there will be consequences to civil disobedience in defiance of oppression, any difficulties can be and will be overcome. We are, however, drawing a line that the forces of repression, socialism, and tyranny must not cross. Some might even color the line red. Yet unlike a certain other, this red line is immovable. I yield nothing on the plane of freedom. I will not take any small step that is, in actuality, one giant leap backward to the darkness we thought we had vanquished. Who is with me?" (Don Fredrick says, "The Obama Timeline is with May. This author does not have health insurance and has no intention of "signing up for ObamaCare," and will refuse to pay any tax or penalty for non-compliance. The Obama regime cannot jail 30 million people—but if it does, most prisoners will be among friends. Of course, many Americans who refuse to comply with ObamaCare's individual mandate will do so not out of a spirit of defiance or love for liberty—but simply because they cannot afford to pay the outlandishly high premiums the legislation has prompted with its outrageous regulations. In any event, the refusal or inability of millions of people to participate in Obama's scheme will necessarily result in its downfall.)

Barack Obama is a Chicago street thug in a thousand dollar suit. "At a recession-proof price of only $19.99, Ikea shoppers have their choice of 3 basic Obama "Tom Stools" ("tom stool" translates to "empty chair" in Swedish). Stained in red, white and blue, the three stools have already garnered thousands of online orders from U.S. taxpayers and from zipcodes as far away as Gaza City, Ramallah, Cairo and Benghazi.

In interviews with several Ikea shoppers at a suburban mall outside of Washington, DC and in College Park, Maryland, MFNS learned that most shoppers were opting to purchase the upgraded version of the Obama Empty Chair – the "Ihalig Stool" – which is not due to be released until November 7 and costs $10 more. The Ihalig Stool (which translates to "Hollow, Cavernous or Shallow Chair") is intended to remain permanently unassembled and left in its box; there are no screws or any other accompanying hardware which might enable the buyer to actually assemble the upgraded empty chair.

Antique furniture expert, Dora Lamore of Langston Virginia, told us the new line of chairs are destined to become an instant collector's piece as soon as Obama gets impeached." (<http://suckersonparade.blogspot.de/>)

JT: Let's make these chairs valuable immediately! Here are some more chairs

JT: Rumor says that the source of the fog is the poisonous, gaseous air coming out of Obama and his regime in their rectal vision of America.

JT: The dog is really Obama in disguise. Moosechelle is enthralled over his many disguises! She says he is better as a dog than as a husband!!!
