JT: Envy is the engine of socialism-communism. The Left envies any and all truth tellers because they are popular, honest, and brave – qualities which the Left profoundly lacks. Envy and hate kill. Socialism is failure and a belief in ignorance. That's the crime. Telling the truth is simply a patriot's duty. Nobel Laureate in Literature: “Europe will soon go under – The Muslims are flooding, occupying and destroying Europe” – (<http://pamelageller.com/2015/08/nobel-laureate-in-literature-europe-will-soon-go-under-the-muslims-are-flooding-occupying-and-destroying-europe.html/#sthash.d8UhPGF6.dpuf>) Quoted in its entirety.

And yet tens of thousands of Muslims continue to flood the borders of European countries.

Europe learned nothing from the Holocaust. They traded six million Jewish lives for 20 million Muslims. The equalizer.

Nobel Laureate in Literature: “Europe will soon go under – The Muslims are flooding, occupying and destroying Europe” (thanks to the Muslim Issue):

*Following Hitler Europeans no longer dare to discuss the disadvantages of alien races and religions, warns the Hungarian-Jewish professional Holocaust and Nobel laureate Imre Kertész in his new book, The Last Escape(?). [Photo of Imre Kertész as a child in the German concentration camps in Auschwitz, in Poland]*

Nobel Laureate in Literature: “The Muslims are flooding, occupying and destroying Europe”

The Hungarian-Jewish writer and professional Holocaust Imre Kertész, who won the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2002, now directs sharp criticism of the Western establishment's decision to allow Europe to change population through mass immigration from the third world countries.

It's in the book, the last to escape Kertész chooses to strongly condemn what those in power do with Europe right now.

In the book Kertész, who at age 15 was transferred to Auschwitz but survived and began a writing career, criticizes the liberal attempt to replace the European culture with mass immigration, particularly from Muslim cultures in the third world.

“Europe will soon go under because of its former liberalism that has proved childish and suicidal. Europe has produced Hitler, and after Hitler the continent stands there with no arguments: the doors are wide open for Islam, they no longer dare talk about race and religion while Islam only knows the language of hatred against alien races and religions,” writes Kertész in his book, according to a summary of the blogger Thomas Nydahl.

The 85-year-old Nobel laureate continues:

“I should say a few words about politics too ... Then I would talk about how Muslims are flooding, occupying, in clear verbs, destroying Europe, and how Europe relates to this, the suicidal liberalism and the stupid democracy ... It always ends the same way: civilization reaches a certain stage of maturation where it is not only able to defend itself, but where it is in a seemingly incomprehensible worship of their own enemy.”

Lynell Hall: 17-Year-Old Charged With Rape Of 8-Year-Old Girl, Claims She ‘Asked For It’

Meaghan Ellis

A 17-year-old male is behind bars following a disturbing incident involving a heinous sex crime against an 8-year-old girl. According to KRMG, the Tulsa Police Department arrested Lynell Hall on Thursday, August 20. It has been reported that Hall’s arrest follows accusations of rape after the victim told a family member about the attack. Shortly after, she was taken to a local hospital, where a sexual assault examination was conducted. The results of the exam were reportedly consistent with rape.

According to News On 6, the incident occurred while the girl was visiting a cousin’s home at a semi-abandoned apartment complex in Tulsa, Oklahoma. During the visit, she came in contact with Hall because her cousin had a group of older friends over.

Hall reportedly took the young girl to one of the abandoned apartments local residents have been known to utilize for sexual “hook-ups.” That’s where the night took a disturbing turn for the worse. Tulsa police sergeant Mike Brown recently shared details about the incident.

“At some point the suspect pulled the 8-year-old girl’s pants down and began engaging in sexual acts with her,” Sergeant Brown explained. “It is our belief that they gained entry somehow to the apartment and stayed there while the owner was out of town. It appears as though the victim was at her cousin’s home, and the cousin had some older friends that had come over as well,” Brown said. “It was clear that he understood that the child was not of an appropriate age and he attempted to minimize the crime initially before finally admitting that he had actually done what he was accused of.”

Court documents also revealed that evidence of a break-in was found at the site where the little girl was reportedly raped. However, that’s not all. When investigators questioned Hall, he admitted that they’d had “some” sexual contact, but insists he stopped when the girl asked him to. But, over time, he eventually retracted his statement and admitted that they did have intercourse, reports Mad World News. Then, in an effort to justify his own actions, he argued that the little girl was “asking for it the whole night,” the affidavit reportedly stated, according to Opposing Views.

Hall has been charged with first-degree rape for the sexual assault of the 8-year-old girl. He is now being held in custody at the Tulsa County jail. In the state of Oklahoma, a 16- or 17-year-old suspect facing a first-degree rape charge can be tried as an adult. Sergeant Brown has confirmed that Hall qualifies to be charged as an adult.

JT: It is obvious he was trying to be better than Muhammad. Muhammad's Aisha was only nine years old.

How the five wealthiest Gulf Nations have so far refused to take a single Syrian refugee

Sep 5, 2015

<http://4a1okfz7n4z30t8ah15moqjp.wpengine.netdna-cdn.com/wp-content/uploads/2015/09/2BF0413000000578-3222405-Sanctuary-Although-the-vast-majority-of-Syrian-refugees-live-in-m-73-1441380822991.jpg>

Sanctuary Although the vast majority of Syrian refugees live in -m-73 1441380822991.jpg.

via DailyMail: More than four million Syrians have been forced to escape the never-ending civil war ravaging their country and the barbaric terror group carving a bloody trail across the Middle East.

The vast majority live in overcrowded refugee camps in Turkey, Lebanon, Jordan, Egypt and Iraq – all under threat from ISIS – and record numbers are making the perilously long journey to Europe.

Yet, as debate rages between politicians in Europe over how many they should take, nearby super-wealthy Gulf nations of Saudi Arabia, United Arab Emirates (UAE), Qatar, Kuwait and Bahrain have refused to offer sanctuary to a single Syrian refugee.

image: http://i.dailymail.co.uk/i/pix/2015/09/04/14/2BF1020C00000578-3222405-image-a-62\_1441372321544.jpg.

Amnesty International’s Head of Refugee and Migrants’ Rights, Sherif Elsayid-Ali, described their inaction as ‘shameful’.

He said: ‘The records of Gulf countries is absolutely appalling, in terms of actually showing compassion and sharing the responsibility of this crisis... It is a disgrace.’

Left with nothing, these refugees travel thousands of miles from the Middle East, through central Europe and across the Mediterranean to reach countries like Germany and Austria.

Others have tried to sneak on boats, trains and trucks crossing the Channel to the UK.

image: [http://i.dailymail.co.uk/i/pix/2015/09/04/16/2BF712B200000578-3222405-Only the United States has given more to the humanitarian effort-a-106\_1441381469223.jpg](http://i.dailymail.co.uk/i/pix/2015/09/04/16/2BF712B200000578-3222405-Only the United States has given more to the humanitarian effort-a-106_1441381469223.jpg).

Almost 3,000 have died trying to reach Europe by sea this year, but hundreds more attempt the same life-threatening journey with their babies and young children every single night.

The tragic death of three-year-old Aylan Kurdi who drowned trying to reach the Greek island of Kos from Bodrum, Turkey, inspired a seismic shift in the European attitude towards the 313,000 people who have reached the continent this year.

None have been allowed to enter the (relatively) nearby Gulf nations, who all rank in the world's top 50 GDPs and have a combined military budget of more than £65billion, according to Arab expert Sultan Sooud al-Qassemi.

He said: 'The Gulf must realise that now is the time to change their policy regarding accepting refugees from the Syria crisis. It is the moral, ethical and responsible step to take.'

None of the Gulf countries signed the 1951 Refugee Convention which defines a refugee 'outside the country of his nationality' because of 'fear of being persecuted for reasons of race, religion, nationality'.

Syrians can still apply for 'costly' tourist visas and work permits to enter wealthier Gulf nations but they are rarely granted, according to the BBC.

image: http://i.dailymail.co.uk/i/pix/2015/09/04/14/2BF05EC500000578-3222405-image-a-57\_1441371745859.jpg.

Nationalities

Gulf nations argue that accepting large numbers of Syrian refugees is a serious threat to the safety of its citizens because terrorists could hide themselves among civilians.

They have donated large sums of money to help homeless refugees. According to ReliefWeb, the UAE has funded an entire refugee camp in Jordan which shelters tens of thousands of Syrians.

Meanwhile, Saudi Arabia and Qatar have donated funds, food, shelter and clothing to Syrians in Lebanon, Turkey and Jordan.

In total, the Gulf states are thought to have given over £589m to the aid effort – but it is four times less than the United States has.

The UK has given £918million to help deal with the impact of violence in Syria and Prime Minister David Cameron today announced Britain is increasing its aid for refugees to more than £1billion.

Britain's contribution is more than Saudi Arabia's £387million, UAE's £359million and Qatar's £157,000 combined.

The Gulf region 'has the capacity to quickly build housing for the refugees,' according to the Managing Editor of the Quartz news website, Bobby Ghosh.

He wrote: 'The giant construction companies that have built the gleaming towers of Dubai, Abu Dhabi, and Riyadh should be contracted to create shelters for the influx.'

‘Saudi Arabia has plenty of expertise at managing large numbers of arrivals... There’s no reason all this knowhow can’t be put to humanitarian use.’

The majority of Syrian refugees have been taken in by Middle Eastern countries. Around 1.9million live in Turkish refugee camps, 1.1million in Lebanon, 629,000 in Jordan, 249,000 in northern Iraq and Egypt has housed 132,000, according to the United Nations.

But there was a massive surge in those trying to reach Europe this year and asylum applications had topped 300,000 by early August.

More than 89,000 were from Germany, which expects to take in more than 800,000 refugees from all over the world this year, and 62,000 for Sweden.

The UK has promised to rehome ‘thousands’, said Prime Minister David Cameron, who only this week claimed accepting more people was not the simple answer to the crisis.
